STRIKE MEDIATOR SETS MEETING

Betty Jo Abel Victor

North Canton Girl Wins Spelldown Second Time

By BYRON EELLS

This could be the year that Betty Jo Abel of North Canton takes national spelling honors — at least if she follows a trend set by previous winners of the regional bee in Canton.

"Betts," a 14-year-old eighth-grader, won her second consecutive crown Friday night at Canton Timken High School, spelling down 42 other hopefuls from Columbiana, Carroll, Stark and Tuscarawas counties to earn another all-expense trip to the national finals June 8-13 in Washington.

SHE WILL be following in the footsteps of two previous double winners of the regional crown, both of whom won the national crown after capturing their second regional titles.

Betty Jo patiently spelled her way through such stumpers as "cincture," "seneschal" and "flagellate" while the other contestants stumbled on some other toughies.

When Jane Schreiber of Malvern, Carroll County, misspelled "extirpate," "Betts" quickly spelled it correctly and then ended the bee with "ingenue," the 282nd word to be pronounced.

Besides the trip to the national finals, the North Canton girl also won a 24-volume set of the Encyclopaedia Britannica, a portable typewriter and a gold medal.

The third time in the last six years a North Canton student has won the bee, her victory enabled her school to gain permanent possession of the Dennis R. Smith Memorial Trophy. The school also will receive a year's supply of Britannica films.

MISS SCHREIBER was presented with a portable typewriter as runnerup while Danny Lee Lucansky, a seventh-grader from Massillon, received a two-volume set of the Britannica World Language Dictionary for third place. He was eliminated on "tessellated."

WEARING THE CROWN for the second time, Betty Jo Abel of North Canton posed for cameramen after last night's bee together with the runnerup, Jane Schreiber of Malvern.

Columbiana County's seven entrants did not fare too well in last night's contest, with the best showing being made by Verna Thomas of Leetonia, exempted village champion. She finished 18th, misspelling "mezzanine."

Mary Grisez of Salem ranked 19th, missing "timorous." Janie Heinbuch of United Local was 29th, eliminated on "oscillate."

West Accord Expected On Berlin Talks

United Negotiating Front For Allies Due In Parley With Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Western Allies are reported 50 per cent agreed on what their proposals and strategy should be when they meet with the Soviet Union in two weeks to discuss Berlin and Germany's future.

Diplomats are confident, however, the remaining 50 per cent of differences will be resolved and a united negotiating front forged at a Western Big Three meeting beginning in Paris Wednesday.

A team of American, British, French and West German officials, however, have failed to reconcile diverging views, particularly on European security offers, at a meeting which ended in London Thursday.

The main conflict appears to lie in Britain's continued insistence on proposing some kind of central European arms control plan, not necessarily linked to progress in achieving German reunification.

The British are understood to be continuing to press for Western agreement on a plan to ask the Soviet Union to accept a ceiling on troops and weapons in a small area covering both parts of East and West Germany.

American, West German and French authorities are reported insisting that any such plan be tied to step-by-step progress in merging the Western and Communist zones of Germany into a single democratic nation.

Diplomats representing the four allies, however, appear to have agreed on these main points:

1. Any new arrangements governing the Allied positions in West Berlin must be negotiated only with the understanding the arrangements in no way alter the Allies' existing legal right to be there. The British are reported to have accepted the view that any new international status would be no safer than the one now existing which is based on their wartime right of conquest.

2. No detailed draft peace treaty will be offered the Soviets. State Department officials had proposed this but the idea has been discarded in favor of proposing a set of about a dozen principles which would be later translated into a detailed treaty.

Woomer To Confer First With Union, Then USPA Officials

The first break in the 10-day-old general pottery strike, which has idled 5,700 potters in 11 dinnerware plants in 3 states, came today when a federal mediator invited both management and union officials to a joint conference Monday morning.

Joseph M. Wells, chairman of the labor committee of the U.S. Potters Association, said Federal Mediator George Woomer of the Pittsburgh regional office of the U. S. Department of Labor invited "both sides" to a meeting at 10 a. m.

The site for the meeting hasn't been determined, Wells said, but it may be held at the USPA offices here.

Wells said the USPA committee has notified the mediator it will attend.

Officials of the Executive Board of the IBOP attending the Cleveland chinaware conference received the invitation at midmorning and advised the strike headquarters.

Claire Armstrong, president of the strike committee, said Woomer advised the IBOP he will be at the union's headquarters Monday morning at 9.

All of the union conferees, except those on the West Coast, were requested to attend the session with Woomer, Armstrong said.

E. L. Wheatley, president, and C. F. Jordan, secretary-treasurer of the striking International Brotherhood of Operative Potters, are representing the union at a wage conference with five chinaware firms today in Cleveland.

No further talks had been scheduled between the IBOP and USPA officials until the mediator intervened in an apparent attempt to resume contractural negotiations which were broken off April 14 with the first general strike in the industry in 37 years launched the following day.

Management and labor officials had conferred for seven days in Pittsburgh before negotiations were called off after a failure to reach an agreement on the IBOP's request for a 40-cent-an-hour wage increase and other fringe benefits.

Posse Scours Area In Mississippi

Masked Mob Storms Jail, Takes Inmate From Cell

POPLARVILLE, Miss. (AP) — Masked and hooded, a mob today crashed into the courthouse cell of a Negro accused of raping a white woman, clubbed him into submission, and vanished in the rolling red clay hills of Pearl River County, Miss.

Sheriff W. O. Moody apparently believes the Negro is dead, even while his posse scours the countryside.

"I'm certain he's either been removed from the area or dumped in some water," he told newsmen.

Victim of the mob was M. C. Parker, 23, who awaited trial on charges of raping a young white mother.

Only bloodstains haphazardly scattered around the second floor cell, down the stairs, and along a tiled corridor indicated the path along which the hooded raiders had dragged Parker into the night.

Parker fought hard at first but quickly gave up the struggle under the bludgeoning of his attackers. C. J. Mondy, a prisoner, told what happened.

"Why did you do it?" yelled a hooded raider.

"I didn't do it," screamed Parker.

Parker continued to voice innocence and under continued shouted queries finally began naming others who "did it." Then he pointed to one of the other five Negro prisoners.

"He did it," he cried.

Then his captors dragged Parker out of the building by his heels, his head thumping on the steel treads of the stairs.

When they dumped Parker into the getaway car, the Negro screamed and howled and renewed his struggle. The car roared away.

For 15 miles around, volunteer searchers, highway patrolmen and sheriff's deputies sought Parker and the mob, without success.

Five jittery Negro prisoners watched the abduction, silent under the threat of violence.

"Keep your damn mouth shut," one of the nine or 10 raiders who came inside the cell block told a prisoner. "There are 200 or 300 men outside."

All casual evidence showed this to be a number used to intimidate. Officials believe such a mob would have been seen, either from a hospital across the street or at a junior college dance down the street.

Crucible Buys Into Canada

Quebec Facility To Be New Subsidiary

The Crucible Steel Co. announced that arrangements have been made to organize a Canadian company to acquire the steelmaking facilities of Sorel Industries, Ltd., at Sorel, Quebec.

Crucible, a leading producer of specialty steels in the United States, has its largest plant at Midland.

The Sorel facility includes an electric melting capacity of 35,000 tons per year, a 16-inch rolling mill and a 2,000-ton press and finishing equipment. It is located at the confluence of the Richelieu and St. Lawrence Rivers.

The new company is expected to produce high-speed, tool, stainless and other alloy steel products for the Canadian markets and for export.

"Crucible's move into Canada represents the combination of several years thought and consideration," Joel Hunter, Crucible's president, said.

"We believe in the promising future of Canada and its growing markets and regard this as a most important step for Crucible. With the facilities and skilled personnel at Sorel, we are assured of the best in product quality," he said.

Edouard Simard, president of Sorel Industries, said "While Crucible will operate the forge and foundry, the Simard interests will continue to operate the large machine shops, plate shops and toolmaking facilities in close co-operation with Crucible.

"This transaction is of the utmost importance in the development of the province of Quebec. It is a step forward in the building of steel production in the province," he said.

Sentencing Delayed For Trio In Chester Case Pending Study

Three young Pennsylvania men under conviction for kidnaping a Chester woman to commit rape were denied a new trial Friday in U. S. District Court in Fairmont.

Sentencing was deferred, however, by Judge Harry E. Watkins pending further investigation by probation officers.

Facing possible life imprisonment after their conviction Wednesday by a jury of 11 women and one man are Ronald A. Wilson, 20, and Donald A. Lane, 19, of Aliquippa, and Wilbert D. Smith, 24 of Rimersburg.

The trio was found guilty in the kidnaping of Mrs. Dorothy Amedeo 33, from her Carolina Ave. tavern last Aug. 15. The victim identified the men, and testified that they robbed her of $200 at gunpoint, forced her into a car, drove her across the Pennsylvania state line into Beaver County where two then assaulted her.

Lane, the youngest, was accused of aiding the others.

The men were returned to Marion County jail with pre - sentence investigation set before Judge Watkins decides how long they are to serve in prison.

The Lindbergh Act provides the death penalty if the person transported across a state line has been harmed. The wording "released unharmed" was used in the indictments of the trio in this case.

Boy Carrying Bomb Seized Near Castro

NEW YORK (AP) — Police seized a young man carrying a homemade bomb Friday night as he tried to climb a barrier only 200 feet from where Fidel Castro was addressing a huge rally in Central Park.

They quoted the young man as saying later that he intended to touch off the bomb "for excitement."

"It was just for kicks, I didn't intend to hurt people," he said. The police bomb squad estimated the bomb had an effective radius of 300 feet.

The Cuban Prime Minister was addressing a cheering crowd of 35,000 from a band shell in the park. The shell was set off from the dark surrounding woods by dozens of police floodlights, and the heaviest police guard in New York City history surrounded Castro.

A wall of police separated him from the crowd in front, and behind the shell police had set up barriers to keep the area clear.

It was here, unknown to Castro and the crowd, that a blond, crewcut young man wearing a pale blue windbreaker and cotton wash pants tried to climb over a barrier into the enclosed space. Immediately he was seized by a patrolman and a detective.

In a hip pocket they found a bulky metal tube, sealed at both ends. Police later reported it was a section cut from a vacuum cleaner handle, which had been filled with a mixture of sulphur and zinc, and sealed at one end with plaster.

Bitter Fight Blocks Vote On Labor Bill

Row Develops Over Compromise About McClellan Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bitter row over a compromise for the McClellan "bill of rights" amendment has delayed final Senate action on the Kennedy labor regulation bill.

Another attempt will be made today to pass the bill.

Plans of the leadership on both sides to finish with the measure Friday night evaporated in a big verbal explosion when a substitute for the bill of rights proposal was called up.

The furore even included a personal attack on Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex), with some senators charging he was trying to force them to vote on a substitute they had not read.

Johnson then suddenly adjourned the Senate until today, despite pleas of some of his colleagues that it be adjourned until Monday.

It appeared the substitute watered down version of the original McClellan amendment would be adopted when the dust settled in the Senate today.

Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark) indicated to newsmen he might well go along with the substitute. He said he was "fully consulted" on it, and that it would meet objections of some of his fellow Southerners to his original proposal.

Road Project Gets Approval Of Councilmen

City Council formally approved the city's participation in the State Highway Department's proposed blacktop resurfacing of Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." from Broadway to Maple St. in the East End at a special meeting this morning.

By a 6-0 vote, Council quickly adopted under suspension of rules a resolution approving the city's share of the proposed cost and an emergency ordinance giving the city's consent and authorizing Safety-Service Director Joseph Ross to enter into maintenance, parking agreements and special contractual obligations with the highway department. Councilman Robert W. Sample Jr. was absent.

The department's Division 11 office at New Philadelphia told Mayor Fred P. Lawrence the legislation should be returned to the New Philadelphia office not later than Thursday.

In revealing the plan, the department asked the city to put up $11,400 as its share of the project estimated to cost between $35,000 and $38,000.

However, county commissioners agreed to pay $5,700 of the city's share after a conference between city and county officials.

The department's promise to resurface the stretch is the result of negotiations opened several weeks ago by the safety-service director. At that time, however, the department told Ross no funds were available.

The state's revised outlook was presented in a letter received by Mayor Lawrence Wednesday morning.

The city is eligible for state aid in the work because E. 5th St. and Pennsylvania Ave. are part of State Route 39 which joins with Pennsylvania Route 68 at the state line.

$7½ Billion Aid Plan Gets Cool Reception

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposal to put 7½ billion dollars into U.S. economic development loans abroad over the next five years got an initially cool reception today.

It was offered by Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) joined him in a series of amendments to revise the foreign aid program drastically.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont), assistant Democratic leader of the Senate, called the amount much too large and "a great deal more than Congress is likely to authorize."

And Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Republican minority leader, in a separate interview, protested the shift in emphasis from military aid to economic assistance.

"Over a period of years," Dirksen said, "the case for foreign aid has been made before the country on the basis of the military aid it provides our allies.

Other Projects Have Priority

Air Force Plans Weapon System To Down Satellites

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force is working on a weapon system to shoot down satellites, a top military space expert says.

But, said Maj. Gen. B. A. Schriever Friday, other weapon developments such as advanced strategic missile systems and a manned strategic space system have priority and must come first. The new system is in the planning and study stage.

Schriever, Air Force missile and research expert, wound up two days of testimony before the Senate Space subcommittee. He said the anti-satellite system probably will follow a system that can find and destroy enemy missiles.

Schriever denied protests by Maj. Gen. John B. Medaris, commander of the Army's Ballistic Missile Agency at Huntsville, Ala. that there was a lack of cooperation between the Air Force and Army on missile problems.

He turned over to the senators a memo he had written to the secretary of the Air Force, James H. Douglas, in which he said Medaris' statements "both disturb and concern me."

Between 1954 and 1959, Schriever said, the Air Force has given the Army nearly 4,500 documents on space and missile problems, but withheld 28.

These 28, he added, involved "contractors' proprietary information, preliminary studies, inconclusive findings, internal Air Force administrative affairs, or could not be released in accordance with security regulations."

When Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) asked why security rules should prevent one military service from giving information to another, Schriever replied that certain "very sensitive intelligence" often cannot even be distributed throughout a single service.

District Man Acquitted Of Causing Brush Fire

Howard Kevan, 1060 Township Line Rd., was found not guilty of causing a brush fire at a hearing Friday before County Judge James L. MacDonald at Lisbon.

Kevan was cited April 17 on a charge of "leaving a fire before it was safely covered and extinguished" after the fire burned off two-tenths of an acre near the Kevan home.

He was cited by Robert McIntosh, district fire warden, who extinguished the blaze after it was spotted by the Beaver Creek fire tower.

Turn Clocks AHEAD; DST To Start Sunday

This is absolutely and positively the final reminder — turn your clock AHEAD an hour before you retire tonight, unless you want to be late to all your engagements Sunday.

To come to the point — Daylight Saving Time starts tomorrow officially at 2 a. m. and lasts through Sept. 27, and possibly Oct. 25.

You could get up at the ghastly hour, of course, to advance the household's timepieces, but it will be simpler to perform that chore before hitting the sack tonight.

Open Continent's Heartland

First Ocean-Going Vessels Enter St. Lawrence Seaway

MONTREAL (AP) — Two Canadian icebreakers today were set to lead a convoy of vessels up North America's biggest ditch—the St. Lawrence Seaway — to open the continent's heartland to the world.

The parade marked the start of major sea commerce for the American midlands, up to 2,400 miles from the Atlantic.

Decked out in bunting, fresh paint and flying the flags of the major maritime nations, about 70 ships were to leave Montreal for inland ports up the 600-mile seaway joining the St. Lawrence River with Lake Erie. Fourteen more ships were to join the convoy at Ogdensburg, N.Y.

Formal dedication ceremonies will be held June 26 with President Eisenhower and Queen Elizabeth. Eisenhower opened the U.S.-built locks near Massena, N.Y., last July.

Cargoes aboard the ships indicate what the wheat belt consumer can expect directly from abroad: automobiles, French champagne, Scotch whisky, beer, wool, glassware, Belfast twine, ham, benzine, jute, nails and refrigerators. Major tonnage from the West will be grain.

The five-year, 475-million-dollar project was financed jointly by U.S. and Canadian taxpayers. Canadians bore the major costs, as the largest portion of the waterway lies within Canada.

It is expected that tolls will pay operating costs during the next 50 years, with the United States getting $1 and Canada $3 from every $4 in tolls.

The seaway begins at Montreal, 1,000 miles from the Atlantic, and snakes along the south shore of the St. Lawrence River for 135 miles to Lake Ontario. Fourteen locks hoist ships 550 feet above the water level at Montreal to the water level at the seaway's extremity in Port Colburne, Ont. from Niagara Falls west, ships utilize Lake Erie, Michigan, Huron and Superior.

Since the lakes and rivers freeze in winter, navigation is a spring-fall affair.

The power behind the seaway is the huge Saunders-Moses hydroelectric dam near Massena. The dam, reaching 3,200 feet across the St. Lawrence from New York to Ontario.

Dam 8 — Friday 6 p. m. 68, Friday midnight 54, today 6 a.m. 45, today noon 71. High 71, low 45.

The Crucible Steel Co. announced that arrangements have been made to organize a Canadian company to acquire the steelmaking facilities of Sorel Industries, Ltd., at Sorel, Quebec.

Crucible, a leading producer of specialty steels in the United States, has its largest plant at Midland.

The Sorel facility includes an electric melting capacity of 35,000 tons per year, a 16-inch rolling mill and a 2,000-ton press and finishing equipment. It is located at the confluence of the Richelieu and St. Lawrence Rivers.

The new company is expected to produce high-speed, tool, stainless and other alloy steel products for the Canadian markets and for export.

"Crucible's move into Canada represents the combination of several years thought and consideration," Joel Hunter, Crucible's president, said.

"We believe in the promising future of Canada and its growing markets and regard this as a most important step for Crucible. With the facilities and skilled personnel at Sorel, we are assured of the best in product quality," he said.

Edouard Simard, president of Sorel Industries, said "While Crucible will operate the forge and foundry, the Simard interests will continue to operate the large machine shops, plate shops and toolmaking facilities in close co-operation with Crucible.

"This transaction is of the utmost importance in the development of the province of Quebec. It is a step forward in the building of steel production in the province," he said.

District Man Acquitted Of Causing Brush Fire

Howard Kevan, 1060 Township Line Rd., was found not guilty of causing a brush fire at a hearing Friday before County Judge James L. MacDonald at Lisbon.

Kevan was cited April 17 on a charge of "leaving a fire before it was safely covered and extinguished" after the fire burned off two-tenths of an acre near the Kevan home.

He was cited by Robert McIntosh, district fire warden, who extinguished the blaze after it was spotted by the Beaver Creek fire tower.

Turn Clocks AHEAD; DST To Start Sunday

This is absolutely and positively the final reminder — turn your clock AHEAD an hour before you retire tonight, unless you want to be late to all your engagements Sunday.

To come to the point — Daylight Saving Time starts tomorrow officially at 2 a. m. and lasts through Sept. 27, and possibly Oct. 25.

You could get up at the ghastly hour, of course, to advance the household's timepieces, but it will be simpler to perform that chore before hitting the sack tonight.

Road Project Gets Approval Of Councilmen

City Council formally approved the city's participation in the State Highway Department's proposed blacktop resurfacing of Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." from Broadway to Maple St. in the East End at a special meeting this morning.

By a 6-0 vote, Council quickly adopted under suspension of rules a resolution approving the city's share of the proposed cost and an emergency ordinance giving the city's consent and authorizing Safety-Service Director Joseph Ross to enter into maintenance, parking agreements and special contractual obligations with the highway department. Councilman Robert W. Sample Jr. was absent.

The department's Division 11 office at New Philadelphia told Mayor Fred P. Lawrence the legislation should be returned to the New Philadelphia office not later than Thursday.

In revealing the plan, the department asked the city to put up $11,400 as its share of the project estimated to cost between $35,000 and $38,000.

However, county commissioners agreed to pay $5,700 of the city's share after a conference between city and county officials.

The department's promise to resurface the stretch is the result of negotiations opened several weeks ago by the safety-service director. At that time, however, the department told Ross no funds were available.

The state's revised outlook was presented in a letter received by Mayor Lawrence Wednesday morning.

The city is eligible for state aid in the work because E. 5th St. and Pennsylvania Ave. are part of State Route 39 which joins with Pennsylvania Route 68 at the state line.

$7½ Billion Aid Plan Gets Cool Reception

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposal to put 7½ billion dollars into U.S. economic development loans abroad over the next five years got an initially cool reception today.

It was offered by Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) joined him in a series of amendments to revise the foreign aid program drastically.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont), assistant Democratic leader of the Senate, called the amount much too large and "a great deal more than Congress is likely to authorize."

And Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Republican minority leader, in a separate interview, protested the shift in emphasis from military aid to economic assistance.

"Over a period of years," Dirksen said, "the case for foreign aid has been made before the country on the basis of the military aid it provides our allies.

Other Projects Have Priority

Air Force Plans Weapon System To Down Satellites

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force is working on a weapon system to shoot down satellites, a top military space expert says.

But, said Maj. Gen. B. A. Schriever Friday, other weapon developments such as advanced strategic missile systems and a manned strategic space system have priority and must come first. The new system is in the planning and study stage.

Schriever, Air Force missile and research expert, wound up two days of testimony before the Senate Space subcommittee. He said the anti-satellite system probably will follow a system that can find and destroy enemy missiles.

Schriever denied protests by Maj. Gen. John B. Medaris, commander of the Army's Ballistic Missile Agency at Huntsville, Ala. that there was a lack of cooperation between the Air Force and Army on missile problems.

He turned over to the senators a memo he had written to the secretary of the Air Force, James H. Douglas, in which he said Medaris' statements "both disturb and concern me."

Between 1954 and 1959, Schriever said, the Air Force has given the Army nearly 4,500 documents on space and missile problems, but withheld 28.

These 28, he added, involved "contractors' proprietary information, preliminary studies, inconclusive findings, internal Air Force administrative affairs, or could not be released in accordance with security regulations."

When Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) asked why security rules should prevent one military service from giving information to another, Schriever replied that certain "very sensitive intelligence" often cannot even be distributed throughout a single service.

Open Continent's Heartland

First Ocean-Going Vessels Enter St. Lawrence Seaway

MONTREAL (AP) — Two Canadian icebreakers today were set to lead a convoy of vessels up North America's biggest ditch—the St. Lawrence Seaway — to open the continent's heartland to the world.

The parade marked the start of major sea commerce for the American midlands, up to 2,400 miles from the Atlantic.

Decked out in bunting, fresh paint and flying the flags of the major maritime nations, about 70 ships were to leave Montreal for inland ports up the 600-mile seaway joining the St. Lawrence River with Lake Erie. Fourteen more ships were to join the convoy at Ogdensburg, N.Y.

Formal dedication ceremonies will be held June 26 with President Eisenhower and Queen Elizabeth. Eisenhower opened the U.S.-built locks near Massena, N.Y., last July.

Cargoes aboard the ships indicate what the wheat belt consumer can expect directly from abroad: automobiles, French champagne, Scotch whisky, beer, wool, glassware, Belfast twine, ham, benzine, jute, nails and refrigerators. Major tonnage from the West will be grain.

The five-year, 475-million-dollar project was financed jointly by U.S. and Canadian taxpayers. Canadians bore the major costs, as the largest portion of the waterway lies within Canada.

It is expected that tolls will pay operating costs during the next 50 years, with the United States getting $1 and Canada $3 from every $4 in tolls.

The seaway begins at Montreal, 1,000 miles from the Atlantic, and snakes along the south shore of the St. Lawrence River for 135 miles to Lake Ontario. Fourteen locks hoist ships 550 feet above the water level at Montreal to the water level at the seaway's extremity in Port Colburne, Ont. from Niagara Falls west, ships utilize Lake Erie, Michigan, Huron and Superior.

Since the lakes and rivers freeze in winter, navigation is a spring-fall affair.

The power behind the seaway is the huge Saunders-Moses hydroelectric dam near Massena. The dam, reaching 3,200 feet across the St. Lawrence from New York to Ontario.

Hancock Dog Warden Lists Schedule Of Rabies Program

The annual program and schedule for giving rabies shots to animal pets was announced today by Sherman Williams of Chester, Hancock County dog warden.

Williams said Dr. Brady Sullivan of Steubenville, a veterinarian, will be in the county at various spots for a week to give the inoculations. The shots are required by law. They will cost the owner $1.50 William said. The inoculation is good for two years.

Williams also warned that owners must obtain new license for their dogs. He said he will accompany Dr. Sullivan during the week to sell the licenses. The cost is $2 for a female, $1 for a male and $1 for a spayed female.

Williams said this is the only time the mass inoculations will be given in the county. After the program is completed, the owners must take their dog or other pets to a private veterinarian for the treatment.

The first inoculations will be given Monday, May 4, at the Lawrenceville fire station from 4 to 6 p. m. and in Chester across from the City Hall from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

Driver Speeds Back To Jail At 100-Mph.

A Lisbon St. motorist, arrested for speeding 100 miles an hour on W. 8th St. and on the East Liverpool - Wellsville super - road, found himself back in jail today on an execution issued by Municipal Court for non-payment of a $300 fine and costs in a drunk driving case of nearly four years ago.

Ray A. Richardson pleaded not guilty to the warrant signed by Patrolmen Paul A. Burson Jr. and E. R. Furgason, who alleged he hit the "century mark" on his motorcycle last Sunday.

When he entered court, Richardson found the execution waiting. He first told court attaches he hadn't been arrested for drunken driving and then later claimed the fine had been cut in half.

Court records show Richardson was fined $300 and costs, sentenced to jail for 10 days and his license was suspended for six months after being convicted of drunken driving June 20, 1955.

The records show no payments at all on the fine and costs and the jail term was not served because Richardson gained his freedom on a $500 bond posted to stay execution of the sentence pending a new trial but no further action ever was taken on the appeal.

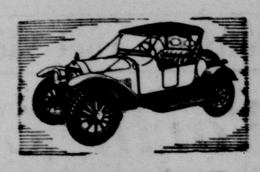

Court attaches said Richardson had left the city and returned recently.

A hearing for John Page of 3rd St., Chester, on a charge of driving without an operator's permit, was continued until May 10 to allow him to secure a replacement for the license which he said he lost with his wallet.

Hancock Dog Warden Lists Schedule Of Rabies Program

The annual program and schedule for giving rabies shots to animal pets was announced today by Sherman Williams of Chester, Hancock County dog warden.

Williams said Dr. Brady Sullivan of Steubenville, a veterinarian, will be in the county at various spots for a week to give the inoculations. The shots are required by law. They will cost the owner $1.50 William said. The inoculation is good for two years.

Williams also warned that owners must obtain new license for their dogs. He said he will accompany Dr. Sullivan during the week to sell the licenses. The cost is $2 for a female, $1 for a male and $1 for a spayed female.

Williams said this is the only time the mass inoculations will be given in the county. After the program is completed, the owners must take their dog or other pets to a private veterinarian for the treatment.

The first inoculations will be given Monday, May 4, at the Lawrenceville fire station from 4 to 6 p. m. and in Chester across from the City Hall from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

The remainder of the schedule follows:

Tuesday, May 5, Newell High School garage, 4 to 6 p.m., and Pughtown fire station, 7 to 8:30 p. m.; Wednesday, May 6, New Cumberland at sheriff's garage, 6 to 8:30 p. m.; Thursday, May 7, Weirton Heights fire station, 4 to 8 p. m., and Friday, May 8, Weirton, rear of the City Building, from 4 to 8 p. m.

An additional 2,200 in potteries in Salem, Steubenville, Sebring, Cambridge and Canonsburg also are idled.

Meanwhile, indications were the wage conference in Cleveland between the Brotherhood and the five chinaware plants might adjourn for the weekend if no settlement is reached.

The talks began Thursday over a new wage agreement for some 2,500 employes.

The Associated Press said the parley was to recess at 1 p. m. when the question of weekend adjournment would be decided.

It was unlikely the session would continue in view of the mediation service intervention in the general strike.

Hearing Is Continued For Man In Road Death

A hearing has been continued until May 4 for a city driver blamed for the traffic death of Howard Strum, 44, of Newell April 17 on Route 66 in Hancock County.

Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland Friday night granted the continuance for William L. Swoger, 22, of 1432 Dresden Ave.

Driver Speeds Back To Jail At 100-Mph.

A Lisbon St. motorist, arrested for speeding 100 miles an hour on W. 8th St. and on the East Liverpool - Wellsville super - road, found himself back in jail today on an execution issued by Municipal Court for non-payment of a $300 fine and costs in a drunk driving case of nearly four years ago.

Ray A. Richardson pleaded not guilty to the warrant signed by Patrolmen Paul A. Burson Jr. and E. R. Furgason, who alleged he hit the "century mark" on his motorcycle last Sunday.

When he entered court, Richardson found the execution waiting. He first told court attaches he hadn't been arrested for drunken driving and then later claimed the fine had been cut in half.

Court records show Richardson was fined $300 and costs, sentenced to jail for 10 days and his license was suspended for six months after being convicted of drunken driving June 20, 1955.

The records show no payments at all on the fine and costs and the jail term was not served because Richardson gained his freedom on a $500 bond posted to stay execution of the sentence pending a new trial but no further action ever was taken on the appeal.

A hearing for John Page of 3rd St., Chester, on a charge of driving without an operator's permit, was continued until May 10 to allow him to secure a replacement for the license which he said he lost with his wallet.

Castro Listened And Learned

When Fidel Castro goes home to Cuba his trials and tribulations as a revolutionary hero who intends to rebuild his country on a foundation of democracy will be closely covered by the U.S. press.

One of the things revealed by his visit to the United States was the lack of attention that made it possible for Fulgencio Batista's dictatorship to bloom and blush unseen while Americans concentrated on more distant political problems.

He knews from the questions asked of him most often that Americans have a psychopathic dread of anything that bears the name "Communist." They are well able to shrug off practice that go with the name, as they have done in many instances.

He also knows from the questions asked of him in this country that Americans regard free elections as the prime requirement of free government and have not learned that elections without a solid basis of popular well-being can be a bitter disappointment. Democracy is not something that can be bestowed on people but the flowering of a condition that must be attained by education, hard work and social stability.

The young Cuban prime minister, knowing what Americans believe he must do—keep Communists out of his government and prepare Cubans for self-rule—is now better prepared to carry on friendly relations with the United States than he was when he came here.

There is one comment he might have made during his visit that would have helped Americans to understand him better. He could have replied when questioned about Communists in Cuba that he knows they are there and hopes their presence will be more than balanced by an influx of American capitalists.

That is his best hope for popular government in Cuba. It is his best chance to save what has been good about the revolution he led against the Batista dictatorship.

There is little reason to doubt at this time that Castro wants to find capitalists, not Communists. And there is little reason to doubt that if he cannot find capitalists to improve Cuba's standard of living, Communists will take as shrewd advantage of their opportunity to make trouble in Cuba as they have taken in other economically distressed countries.

What Kind Of Labor Reform Now?

So many amendments are being proposed for the labor-management reporting and disclosure bill being debated in the Senate that they add up to total confusion.

Among the scores of proposals for changing the original purpose of the bill as explained by its sponsors, Senators Kennedy and Ervin, are union-backed suggestions for legalizing the closed shop and employer-backed proposals for outlawing the union shop. The wide range of the proposals show what the issue of the Kennedy-Ervin bill is.

As its title indicates, it is a bill to regulate reporting and disclosures of practices and procedures in labor-management affairs. The purpose is to open up some of the closed places that have invited skulduggery. Its sponsors believe that if the internal affairs of unions and management were conducted honestly, criminals and racketeers would find it impossible to exploit them.

The bill never was intended to be a sweeping reform of unions. Nor was it intended to be a club cracked down on the skull of management. It is a technical approach to a problem of internal operation.

Thus, every proposal that aims to do something else is not, strictly defined, an idea for amending the bill but an idea for a legislative rider that would not properly be a part of the bill at all — just a parasite. Since the riders are being put forward by extremists of both varieties, there is a strong case to be made for getting rid of all of them.

Eventually, there will need to be another bill reflecting the people's dissatisfaction with external practices of unionism that cannot be condoned. But that should be another issue; it should not be confused with the issue of cleaning up internal practices that have made it difficult for clean unionists to police their own organizations.

Another Phase Of Safe Driving

Entries are being accepted for the annual teen-age safe driving Road-e-o being sponsored here by the local chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Road-e-o will be held May 10, with a written examination set for May 6.

In a brochure publicizing the event, the Jaycees ask this question: "Why should you enter?"

They answer in this manner: "Perhaps the number one reason is that this is your opportunity to prove that America's youth are safe and capable drivers. By proving this in the Road-e-o, you automatically bring honor to yourself and to your family. Naturally, the more material rewards, such as the scholarships and the expense-paid trips, are things that certainly are worth trying for."

The Jaycees also point out that "by encouraging the young drivers you know to participate, you not only are being of service to them, but you are helping to support safe driving in your community. As motorists of more years and experience, you will be interested in knowing just how safety-conscious our teen-age drivers really are."

The reasons are there. All that is needed is your participation. You're eligible to enter if you will not have reached 20 years of age by Aug. 13, the last day of the national finals; if you have a driver's license or permit; if you have a clean record of no moving traffic violations in the six months preceding Aug. 1.

Application for the Road-e-o may be made with Austen Moore, driver education instructor at the high school; at the YMCA, or with any member of the Jaycees.

When Time Is Of The Essence

It is a good bet that when the historians get around to telling about daylight saving time in a long footnote, their version will explain what still has not been comprehended in the mid-20th century.

Daylight saving time was an outgrowth of the industrial revolution that changed the United States from an agrarian to a manufacturing society.

Masses of human beings were obliged to regulate their lives according to the starting times and quitting times decreed by their employers, instead of their own inclinations.

When it occurred to them that it would be convenient to get up earlier in the morning so they would have more hours of daylight to enjoy in the evening, they realized that the best way to do this would be to move the clocks ahead during the long days of summertime and set them back during the long nights of winter. There was no other way to deal with the problem of starting and quitting time in an industrial era.

Naturally, this annoyed farmers and their families, who did not have to accommodate themselves to time clocks in factories and offices. But in recent years, something has been happening to farm families. They have been getting into the swing of the industrial revolution too.

Many of them have one or more members who punch time clocks in factories and offices. Many of them are only part-time farmers, who value daylight saving as highly as full-time industrial workers. In any event, there is less complaining about daylight saving than there used to be, and one day there may be no complaining at all.

It is not unreasonable to believe that in another decade or so Congress might re-enact the clause that was originally in the Standard Time Act, making daylight saving nationwide. The farm bloc scuttled it after World War I, but even the farm bloc now knows the industrial revolution is here to stay.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

"Operation Godfrey" will hold headlines with "Operations West Berlin, Panama and Carribean." When this airwave star is in the repair pit it's major news.

"Redhead" is a good bet to win. He's been in tough spots before and come out whistling his theme song, with the surgeons issuing the bulletin that his ratings, sick or well, were unimpaired.

Old sailors never die; they just develop new ukelele routines. Arthur has been a sailor, an airman and a Florida hotel owner. What can make you more immune to danger?

HE HAS MILLIONS of fans in his corner. The doctors and nurses had better be good. Big worry is not over him but over the public and hospital staff interest. A buzzer from his room can bring not only the medical men but every nurse, hospital visitor and newsman. It's hard to lose with that kind of support.

Godfrey has had pains in his chest but they may turn out to be due to commercials and laughing too loudly before a guest finishes a funny story.

Maybe all he needs is a rest. After all he is an entertainer, not a work elephant. Anyhow when he comes out he will be able to endorse table products with greater enthusiasm after eating hospital food.

Fortitude, fearlessness, confidence, faith and good humor are his characteristics. These are great assets. Our bet is that he will buzz the control stations of Fate, laugh off the danger signals of the Dr. Kildare Zone, circle the Getwell Airfield bravely and make a perfect landing with the surgeons grouping up as guest stars to knock the applause meters higher than Talent Scout programs ever did.

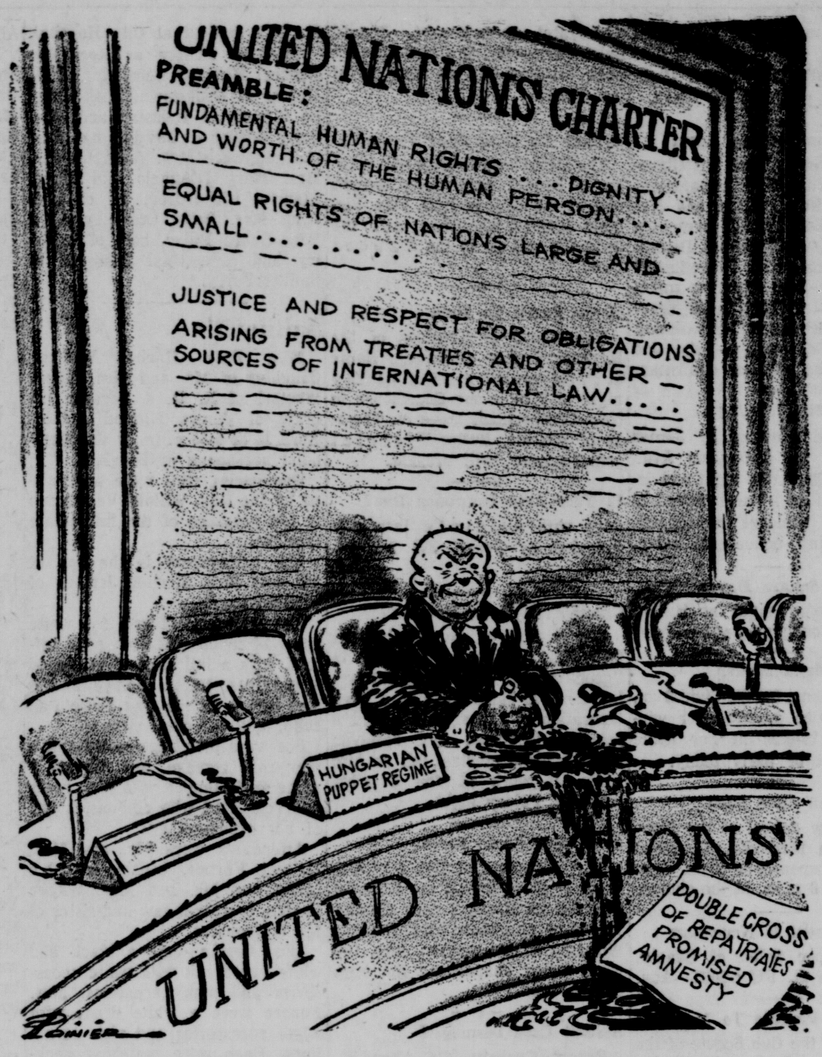

Arthur Godfrey will make his fight "in color." Here's joining with the multitudes in wishing him a fast recovery and the satisfaction of knowing that nobody except a surgeon could ever get him "to take a cut."

WE KEEP THINKING of that woman, fishing on pier, who was seized as a convict's hostage. It must have annoyed her when she got home and was asked, "Any luck?" Fishing-folks' top concern is always with fish and we fancy that even when the convict had a knife at her throat, the woman said, "Careful, or you'll upset the bait," or "Hold everything; I've got a bite."

Maybe most of those men carrying "Down With Castro" banners are barbers.

A Cleveland man has turned out a golfball that can't be lost. Wanna bet? It has a paint which shines brilliantly anywhere, even in fairly deep ponds. There are golfers on every course whose cry "Where did it go" can still be counted on, however.

New Law Hits Union Fund Theft

By Victor Riesel

It is now absolutely against the law to steal money from a union in New York. While they're battling in Congress to give embezzlement a bad name, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has pushed through a law, the first of its kind anywhere, which says that any external revenue made by labor leaders will have to be earned in a fashion utterly unrelated to their unions or employers in the same industry.

Victor Riesel

Furthermore, if anyone gets caught stealing or misusing funds, he'll have to give them back.

This is a revolutionary concept. But life has its rough moments. For example, if some hoods control a union and steal from it and the union refuses to go into court to recover the loot, a rank-and-file member can go into court himself. He can sue the crooks.

Under this law, the rank-and-filer has the right to sue if he believes it would be futile to ask his union to bring the action.

THIS LAW OPERATES on the the theory that while every New Yorker may have two TV sets in his home, he may be short one qualified lawyer. The law gives the courts the right to reimburse suing members for legal fees and costs out of the union money recovered from the crowd with the cash-picking hands.

On the slight chance that we might get a moment of silence in Washington or in some state capitals, there is hereby presented in a few words the simple dignity which the law returns to the man who works by hand and brain for his daily bread:

"It is hereby declared to be the public policy of the State of New York that officers and agents of a labor organization shall be held to a fiduciary obligation in handling the labor organization's assets; that such officers and agents shall not acquire financial interests which interfere or tend to interfere with the faithful performance of their responsibility to the labor organization and that such officers and agents shall account fully to the members of such labor organizations for all assets and financial transactions. . . .

"Employers, employer organizations, labor relations consultants and other persons shall not participate in or induce violations of such fiduciary obligations by officers and agents of labor organizations."

THAT MEANS no fixers, no bribes, no gifts.

And just to make certain that everybody gets a fair shake, the law provides full and public reporting of the income and all expenses of all labor officials totaling more than $10,000 a year, loans of more than $500 and gifts worth more than $100.

In addition, every labor relations consulultant must file a "verified report" of all his receipts and expenditures if he participated in any way in helping a union, helping an employer, settling a contract or fighting a union.

Employers must file, too. Thus there is a double check on the law's provision that no union official can take payment from an employer in the same field for any reason in any form. Not in commissions. Not in stock.

If this law is really enforced, no crook can survive, no hood will be able to throw a cloak over those hundreds of blackmailing dummy unions now peddling terror across the state.

THIS PRECEDENT making law gives Gov. Rockefeller's industrial commissioner considerable power—the kind which the U.S. secretary of labor would get if they stopped arguing in Washington and passed a bill.

Industrial Commissioner Martin Catherwood now has the power to inspect union books which he suspects. And there must be union books because the law says they can't be burned or lost for five years.

The commissioner can subpena records and witnesses. There is also a three-man watchdog committee to see that the law works properly.

It's a weird commentary on our folklore when it is big news that it is now illegal to steal even union money.

Herter Popular Choice

By Jay G. Hayden

Christian A. Herter, taking over as secretary of state, has two highly important elements pulling for him: Members of Congress and second-stringers in the State Department.

Because he served 10 years in Congress and in each of 13 consecutive bienniums ran for elective office, with never a defeat, he starts with a popularity on Capitol Hill that, among secretaries of state within memory, was enjoyed only by Cordell Hull and James F. Byrnes.

For two reasons, selection of Herter is pleasing to his former fellow underlings in the State Department—48,481 of them.

Herter's first job after he left college was in the career diplomatic service. Beginning as a lowly clerk in the U.S. Embassy at Berlin in 1916 he remained on the State Department payroll until he was weaned away in 1919 to a personal secretaryship by Herbert Hoover.

MORE IMPORTANT, Herter's day-to-day association during two years as under secretary of state has been predominantly with others in the close-to-top echelon of the State Department—drawn together by a mutual frustration.

The cause of the latter was that Dulles' administration was peculiarly a one-man show. He kept the strings of authority in his own hands, down to the last detail. And the repository of international policies was mainly under his hat. He used many assistants, of course, but with little regard for titular order. Assistant secretaries of state, and others in comparable category, rarely knew where they really were at in the vast hierarchy.

This condition was the more pronounced due to Dulles' frequent and long travels abroad, clocking an unparalleled 560,000 miles by airplane during six years in office.

As chief under secretary, Herter's job to a great degree has been listening to the woes of the department's brightest young men and doing the best he could to solve their problems and appease their hurt feelings.

There is an impression abroad that American foreign policy-making recently has suffered from too much domination by Dulles, in distinction to the President, who in the final analysis is the American voice the outside world mainly listens for.

CONCEIVABLY, that condition now may be reversed, due to a tendency of the President to repose too little confidence in Secretary Herter. That could be so particularly if Dulles as White House adviser—another Col. House in the fashion of the Wilson administration—should sit in judgment of Herter's actions.

There is an interesting comparison between the performances of Dulles and Secretary Hull, who served longer than any other secretary of state in U.S. history.

Secretary Hull had served in both the House and the Senate. On that account, perhaps, he spent much of his effort toward keeping the Congress firmly in support of President Roosevelt's policies. But Hull also was famous for rising up against any fellow administrator who tried to move in between him and the President.

Hull twice threatened to resign—the first time after Raymond Moley a White House braintruster, meddled in the course of the London Economic Conference and, again when he believed his under secretary, Summer Welles, a cousin of Roosevelt, was undercutting him by way of a White House side door.

HULL HAD a deep distaste for foreign travel. During more than 11 years as secretary of state he ventured abroad only five times. In 1933 he journeyed by boat to and from London.

Three times he attended Pan American meetings, in Central or South America. And in 1943, despite a lifetime rule against boarding an airplane, he flew to Moscow and back, over war-infested seas.

A question that almost certainly will now arise is whether Senate Democrats—notably Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson and-or James William Fulbright, new chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee—will be invited to sit in on either the Big Four foreign ministers' conference, including Russia, assembling May 11, or the projected summit meeting of chiefs of state, indefinitely set for later this summer.

Ever Vocal Critics

By David Lawrence

Herter Appointment Handled With Care

You can't win with some of the critics — you're wrong whatever you do! This must have been the thought that crossed President Eisenhower's mind last week as he read some of the caustic comments about an "unnecessary delay" in announcing the appointment of Christian Herter as secretary of state.

David Lawrence

One can readily imagine what some of the same critics who were strong for the Herter appointment would have said if they were certain he wouldn't favor the changes they hope for in public policy.

"Look," they would have chorused, "here's the President acting precipitately on the most important appointment he has to make in this critical time in world history!" And "Why does he appoint a sick man?"

President Eisenhower's deliberateness is to be praised rather than condemned. He knew of the arthritic condition of his under secretary of state. He realized the newspapers would be printing pictures of a man on crutches. So it was decided to offset that criticism by getting a medical report to clear up all doubts. It took a few days to get that done.

THE PRESIDENT talked to Mr. Herter on Monday, April 13 — two days before the Wednesday on which the telephone resignation of Mr. Dulles was announced. Mr. Herter was told at that Monday conference by Mr. Eisenhower that, if the medical examination turned out all right, he would be the next secretary of state. On Tuesday, April 14, it was announced that Mr. Herter would head the American delegation at the foreign ministers' conferences in Paris and Geneva. Why, then, on Wednesday morning did the President, in speaking to the press, mention the possibility of other candidates? Because he wasn't sure at that time what the medical examination would show.

Would the critics have a president of the United States give the impression that he was disregarding all suggestions and announce an appointment even before he received a formal letter of resignation?

What if the medical report had turned out unfavorably? As soon as the favorable medical report came on Thursday afternoon, Mr. Herter was promptly asked to be on hand at Augusta, Ga., Saturday morning for the formal announcement of his appointment.

IS A DELAY of a few days in announcing the appointment of a new secretary of state such a blunder as has been described by critics?

Actually, it was this very criticism — widely published in large part by those who disagree with the Eisenhower - Dulles policies—that gave rise throughout the world to the idea that the hesitation was a big mistake and that there was something behind it all which indicated a lack of confidence by the President in the man he selected.

The President is one of the most gracious and considerate persons in public life. He is not the kind that likes to see anyone announcing his candidacy for Congress immediately after the funeral of a deceased member. There are some amenities that ought to be observed, even in the rough and tumble of modern politics.

The tragic withdrawal from public office of John Foster Dulles touched the President deeply. His voice was choked with emotion at his Wednesday press conference. A man who has given his all to the post of secretary of state was seriously ill. The will to live is important to a sick man.

The President wanted to encourage the outgoing secretary to feel he would continue to be valuable as a consultant. He hoped the press would emphasize the service of Mr. Dulles.

SO, WHILE all along Mr. Herter has led the list of possible successors, there was every reason for Mr. Eisenhower to make a thorough study of all the circumstances before getting into print with an announcement of a hasty decision. The Senate leadership rushed through the confirmation in an attempt to exploit the situation politically — to show that at least there was no hesitation on Capitol Hill.

President Eisenhower knows the heart of America far better than do most of his critics. He did not show unseemly haste. He endeavored to use the interval of a few days to survey the situation carefully.

His judgment in handling the presidential job these days is winning the approval of the American people. The latest Gallup Poll shows that his popularity has gone up to 60 per cent, which is eight points higher than it was when the congressional election was held last November.

Just For A Change

By Truman Twill

There is an epidemic of whatever-became-of-the-good-old-this-and-that raging in some quarters—and this kind of backward-looking always evokes nostaligic sighs.

But just for a change— ... ...

Whatever became of lukewarm dishwater with globules of pallid grease floating on the surface and knives, forks and spoons that had to be viewed with suspicion because it was impossible to be sure they were clean?

Whatever became of primitive plumbing that made the existence of hot water as chancy as a ticket on the Irish Sweepstakes and caused family bathing to be a sometime thing because supply could not meet demand?

Whatever became of country hams that were so tough the only thing to do with the things was grind them up into ham salad so consumers with only ordinary teeth could ingest the stringy meat?

Whatever became of the idea that a drinking cup was a drinking cup, come one, come all, and the race for survival belonged to the fittest who could take on and throw off all infections?

Whatever became of the practce of hanging sachets of spicy substances in clothes closets to gloss over the unpalatable fact that woolens which could not be washed without irreparable damage were filthy with accumulated soils?

Whatever became of the slanders and libels that once made politics in this republic a series of contests in character assassination, with every candidate a helpless victim of ruthless opposition made more so by the near-certainty that a whispering campaign could not be stopped?

Whatever became of the once-prevailing practice of exposing school teachers to the primitive prejudices of whatever unlearned goons might land a place on a school board, putting public instruction at the mercy of knotheads?

Whatever became of the notion that a woman with a family had fulfilled her mission in life and should be willing to spend the rest of her days bent over a scrubboard, an ironing board, a rag mop, a hot stove and a dust cloth, with no assertions of the qualities that made her attractive before she got married?

Whatever became of the tradition that it was all right in the United States to do what formerly had been done in the Old World, namely, to farm out the older children in a big family to neighbors looking for cheap help and then for parents to pre-empt their earnings?

Whatever became of milk that turned sour before it could be brought in off the doorstep, of perishable foods that turned into lethal potions because there was no refrigeration, of untreated water that spread typhoid and of uninspected products that would not have been safe for hyenas to eat?

Whatever became of down-and-out families that relied on handouts for less-than-subsistence existence, of pest-houses where smallpox and diphtheria victims were shucked off to die and be buried as quickly as possible, of "inflammation of the bowels" and gangrenous wounds?

Whatever became of crude lighting that made it impossible to do anything after dark except peer through the gloom, of buildings so badly ventilated the occupants relied on palm-leaf fans to maintain consciousness, of no quick communication between distant points, of too-heavy garments, too-heavy shoes, brooms, washtubs, flat irons and dentistry without pain-killers.

We got rid of them, that's what became of them. It didn't happen a century too soon, either.

Castro Listened And Learned

When Fidel Castro goes home to Cuba his trials and tribulations as a revolutionary hero who intends to rebuild his country on a foundation of democracy will be closely covered by the U.S. press.

One of the things revealed by his visit to the United States was the lack of attention that made it possible for Fulgencio Batista's dictatorship to bloom and blush unseen while Americans concentrated on more distant political problems.

He knews from the questions asked of him most often that Americans have a psychopathic dread of anything that bears the name "Communist." They are well able to shrug off practice that go with the name, as they have done in many instances.

He also knows from the questions asked of him in this country that Americans regard free elections as the prime requirement of free government and have not learned that elections without a solid basis of popular well-being can be a bitter disappointment. Democracy is not something that can be bestowed on people but the flowering of a condition that must be attained by education, hard work and social stability.

The young Cuban prime minister, knowing what Americans believe he must do—keep Communists out of his government and prepare Cubans for self-rule—is now better prepared to carry on friendly relations with the United States than he was when he came here.

There is one comment he might have made during his visit that would have helped Americans to understand him better. He could have replied when questioned about Communists in Cuba that he knows they are there and hopes their presence will be more than balanced by an influx of American capitalists.

That is his best hope for popular government in Cuba. It is his best chance to save what has been good about the revolution he led against the Batista dictatorship.

There is little reason to doubt at this time that Castro wants to find capitalists, not Communists. And there is little reason to doubt that if he cannot find capitalists to improve Cuba's standard of living, Communists will take as shrewd advantage of their opportunity to make trouble in Cuba as they have taken in other economically distressed countries.

What Kind Of Labor Reform Now?

So many amendments are being proposed for the labor-management reporting and disclosure bill being debated in the Senate that they add up to total confusion.

Among the scores of proposals for changing the original purpose of the bill as explained by its sponsors, Senators Kennedy and Ervin, are union-backed suggestions for legalizing the closed shop and employer-backed proposals for outlawing the union shop. The wide range of the proposals show what the issue of the Kennedy-Ervin bill is.

As its title indicates, it is a bill to regulate reporting and disclosures of practices and procedures in labor-management affairs. The purpose is to open up some of the closed places that have invited skulduggery. Its sponsors believe that if the internal affairs of unions and management were conducted honestly, criminals and racketeers would find it impossible to exploit them.

The bill never was intended to be a sweeping reform of unions. Nor was it intended to be a club cracked down on the skull of management. It is a technical approach to a problem of internal operation.

Thus, every proposal that aims to do something else is not, strictly defined, an idea for amending the bill but an idea for a legislative rider that would not properly be a part of the bill at all — just a parasite. Since the riders are being put forward by extremists of both varieties, there is a strong case to be made for getting rid of all of them.

Eventually, there will need to be another bill reflecting the people's dissatisfaction with external practices of unionism that cannot be condoned. But that should be another issue; it should not be confused with the issue of cleaning up internal practices that have made it difficult for clean unionists to police their own organizations.

Another Phase Of Safe Driving

Entries are being accepted for the annual teen-age safe driving Road-e-o being sponsored here by the local chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Road-e-o will be held May 10, with a written examination set for May 6.

In a brochure publicizing the event, the Jaycees ask this question: "Why should you enter?"

They answer in this manner: "Perhaps the number one reason is that this is your opportunity to prove that America's youth are safe and capable drivers. By proving this in the Road-e-o, you automatically bring honor to yourself and to your family. Naturally, the more material rewards, such as the scholarships and the expense-paid trips, are things that certainly are worth trying for."

The Jaycees also point out that "by encouraging the young drivers you know to participate, you not only are being of service to them, but you are helping to support safe driving in your community. As motorists of more years and experience, you will be interested in knowing just how safety-conscious our teen-age drivers really are."

The reasons are there. All that is needed is your participation. You're eligible to enter if you will not have reached 20 years of age by Aug. 13, the last day of the national finals; if you have a driver's license or permit; if you have a clean record of no moving traffic violations in the six months preceding Aug. 1.

Application for the Road-e-o may be made with Austen Moore, driver education instructor at the high school; at the YMCA, or with any member of the Jaycees.

When Time Is Of The Essence

It is a good bet that when the historians get around to telling about daylight saving time in a long footnote, their version will explain what still has not been comprehended in the mid-20th century.

Daylight saving time was an outgrowth of the industrial revolution that changed the United States from an agrarian to a manufacturing society.

Masses of human beings were obliged to regulate their lives according to the starting times and quitting times decreed by their employers, instead of their own inclinations.

When it occurred to them that it would be convenient to get up earlier in the morning so they would have more hours of daylight to enjoy in the evening, they realized that the best way to do this would be to move the clocks ahead during the long days of summertime and set them back during the long nights of winter. There was no other way to deal with the problem of starting and quitting time in an industrial era.

Naturally, this annoyed farmers and their families, who did not have to accommodate themselves to time clocks in factories and offices. But in recent years, something has been happening to farm families. They have been getting into the swing of the industrial revolution too.

Many of them have one or more members who punch time clocks in factories and offices. Many of them are only part-time farmers, who value daylight saving as highly as full-time industrial workers. In any event, there is less complaining about daylight saving than there used to be, and one day there may be no complaining at all.

It is not unreasonable to believe that in another decade or so Congress might re-enact the clause that was originally in the Standard Time Act, making daylight saving nationwide. The farm bloc scuttled it after World War I, but even the farm bloc now knows the industrial revolution is here to stay.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

"Operation Godfrey" will hold headlines with "Operations West Berlin, Panama and Carribean." When this airwave star is in the repair pit it's major news.

"Redhead" is a good bet to win. He's been in tough spots before and come out whistling his theme song, with the surgeons issuing the bulletin that his ratings, sick or well, were unimpaired.

Old sailors never die; they just develop new ukelele routines. Arthur has been a sailor, an airman and a Florida hotel owner. What can make you more immune to danger?

HE HAS MILLIONS of fans in his corner. The doctors and nurses had better be good. Big worry is not over him but over the public and hospital staff interest. A buzzer from his room can bring not only the medical men but every nurse, hospital visitor and newsman. It's hard to lose with that kind of support.

Godfrey has had pains in his chest but they may turn out to be due to commercials and laughing too loudly before a guest finishes a funny story.

Maybe all he needs is a rest. After all he is an entertainer, not a work elephant. Anyhow when he comes out he will be able to endorse table products with greater enthusiasm after eating hospital food.

Fortitude, fearlessness, confidence, faith and good humor are his characteristics. These are great assets. Our bet is that he will buzz the control stations of Fate, laugh off the danger signals of the Dr. Kildare Zone, circle the Getwell Airfield bravely and make a perfect landing with the surgeons grouping up as guest stars to knock the applause meters higher than Talent Scout programs ever did.

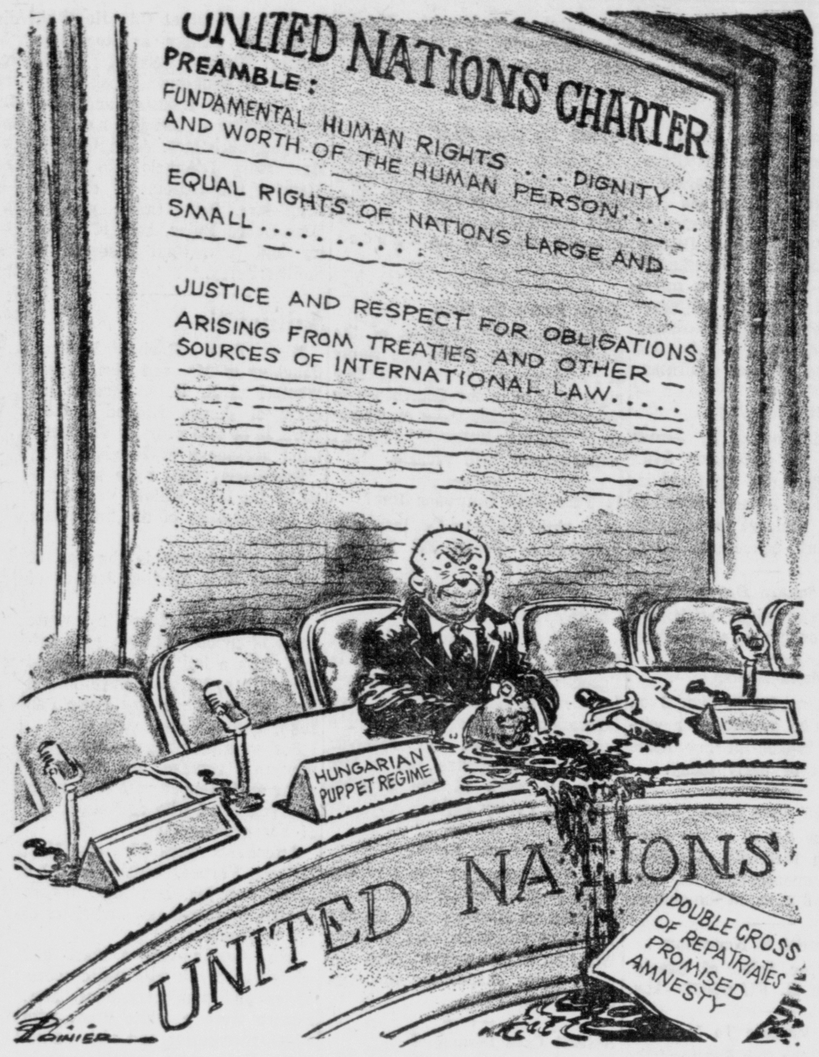

Arthur Godfrey will make his fight "in color." Here's joining with the multitudes in wishing him a fast recovery and the satisfaction of knowing that nobody except a surgeon could ever get him "to take a cut."

WE KEEP THINKING of that woman, fishing on pier, who was seized as a convict's hostage. It must have annoyed her when she got home and was asked, "Any luck?" Fishing-folks' top concern is always with fish and we fancy that even when the convict had a knife at her throat, the woman said, "Careful, or you'll upset the bait," or "Hold everything; I've got a bite."

Maybe most of those men carrying "Down With Castro" banners are barbers.

A Cleveland man has turned out a golfball that can't be lost. Wanna bet? It has a paint which shines brilliantly anywhere, even in fairly deep ponds. There are golfers on every course whose cry "Where did it go" can still be counted on, however.

New Law Hits Union Fund Theft

By Victor Riesel

It is now absolutely against the law to steal money from a union in New York. While they're battling in Congress to give embezzlement a bad name, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has pushed through a law, the first of its kind anywhere, which says that any external revenue made by labor leaders will have to be earned in a fashion utterly unrelated to their unions or employers in the same industry.

Victor Riesel

Furthermore, if anyone gets caught stealing or misusing funds, he'll have to give them back.

This is a revolutionary concept. But life has its rough moments. For example, if some hoods control a union and steal from it and the union refuses to go into court to recover the loot, a rank-and-file member can go into court himself. He can sue the crooks.

Under this law, the rank-and-filer has the right to sue if he believes it would be futile to ask his union to bring the action.

THIS LAW OPERATES on the the theory that while every New Yorker may have two TV sets in his home, he may be short one qualified lawyer. The law gives the courts the right to reimburse suing members for legal fees and costs out of the union money recovered from the crowd with the cash-picking hands.

On the slight chance that we might get a moment of silence in Washington or in some state capitals, there is hereby presented in a few words the simple dignity which the law returns to the man who works by hand and brain for his daily bread:

"It is hereby declared to be the public policy of the State of New York that officers and agents of a labor organization shall be held to a fiduciary obligation in handling the labor organization's assets; that such officers and agents shall not acquire financial interests which interfere or tend to interfere with the faithful performance of their responsibility to the labor organization and that such officers and agents shall account fully to the members of such labor organizations for all assets and financial transactions. . . .

"Employers, employer organizations, labor relations consultants and other persons shall not participate in or induce violations of such fiduciary obligations by officers and agents of labor organizations."

THAT MEANS no fixers, no bribes, no gifts.

And just to make certain that everybody gets a fair shake, the law provides full and public reporting of the income and all expenses of all labor officials totaling more than $10,000 a year, loans of more than $500 and gifts worth more than $100.

In addition, every labor relations consulultant must file a "verified report" of all his receipts and expenditures if he participated in any way in helping a union, helping an employer, settling a contract or fighting a union.

Employers must file, too. Thus there is a double check on the law's provision that no union official can take payment from an employer in the same field for any reason in any form. Not in commissions. Not in stock.

If this law is really enforced, no crook can survive, no hood will be able to throw a cloak over those hundreds of blackmailing dummy unions now peddling terror across the state.

THIS PRECEDENT making law gives Gov. Rockefeller's industrial commissioner considerable power—the kind which the U.S. secretary of labor would get if they stopped arguing in Washington and passed a bill.

Industrial Commissioner Martin Catherwood now has the power to inspect union books which he suspects. And there must be union books because the law says they can't be burned or lost for five years.

The commissioner can subpena records and witnesses. There is also a three-man watchdog committee to see that the law works properly.

It's a weird commentary on our folklore when it is big news that it is now illegal to steal even union money.

Herter Popular Choice

By Jay G. Hayden

Christian A. Herter, taking over as secretary of state, has two highly important elements pulling for him: Members of Congress and second-stringers in the State Department.

Because he served 10 years in Congress and in each of 13 consecutive bienniums ran for elective office, with never a defeat, he starts with a popularity on Capitol Hill that, among secretaries of state within memory, was enjoyed only by Cordell Hull and James F. Byrnes.

For two reasons, selection of Herter is pleasing to his former fellow underlings in the State Department—48,481 of them.

Herter's first job after he left college was in the career diplomatic service. Beginning as a lowly clerk in the U.S. Embassy at Berlin in 1916 he remained on the State Department payroll until he was weaned away in 1919 to a personal secretaryship by Herbert Hoover.

MORE IMPORTANT, Herter's day-to-day association during two years as under secretary of state has been predominantly with others in the close-to-top echelon of the State Department—drawn together by a mutual frustration.

The cause of the latter was that Dulles' administration was peculiarly a one-man show. He kept the strings of authority in his own hands, down to the last detail. And the repository of international policies was mainly under his hat. He used many assistants, of course, but with little regard for titular order. Assistant secretaries of state, and others in comparable category, rarely knew where they really were at in the vast hierarchy.

This condition was the more pronounced due to Dulles' frequent and long travels abroad, clocking an unparalleled 560,000 miles by airplane during six years in office.

As chief under secretary, Herter's job to a great degree has been listening to the woes of the department's brightest young men and doing the best he could to solve their problems and appease their hurt feelings.

There is an impression abroad that American foreign policy-making recently has suffered from too much domination by Dulles, in distinction to the President, who in the final analysis is the American voice the outside world mainly listens for.

CONCEIVABLY, that condition now may be reversed, due to a tendency of the President to repose too little confidence in Secretary Herter. That could be so particularly if Dulles as White House adviser—another Col. House in the fashion of the Wilson administration—should sit in judgment of Herter's actions.

There is an interesting comparison between the performances of Dulles and Secretary Hull, who served longer than any other secretary of state in U.S. history.

Secretary Hull had served in both the House and the Senate. On that account, perhaps, he spent much of his effort toward keeping the Congress firmly in support of President Roosevelt's policies. But Hull also was famous for rising up against any fellow administrator who tried to move in between him and the President.

Hull twice threatened to resign—the first time after Raymond Moley a White House braintruster, meddled in the course of the London Economic Conference and, again when he believed his under secretary, Summer Welles, a cousin of Roosevelt, was undercutting him by way of a White House side door.

HULL HAD a deep distaste for foreign travel. During more than 11 years as secretary of state he ventured abroad only five times. In 1933 he journeyed by boat to and from London.

Three times he attended Pan American meetings, in Central or South America. And in 1943, despite a lifetime rule against boarding an airplane, he flew to Moscow and back, over war-infested seas.

A question that almost certainly will now arise is whether Senate Democrats—notably Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson and-or James William Fulbright, new chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee—will be invited to sit in on either the Big Four foreign ministers' conference, including Russia, assembling May 11, or the projected summit meeting of chiefs of state, indefinitely set for later this summer.

Ever Vocal Critics

Herter Appointment Handled With Care

You can't win with some of the critics — you're wrong whatever you do! This must have been the thought that crossed President Eisenhower's mind last week as he read some of the caustic comments about an "unnecessary delay" in announcing the appointment of Christian Herter as secretary of state.

David Lawrence

One can readily imagine what some of the same critics who were strong for the Herter appointment would have said if they were certain he wouldn't favor the changes they hope for in public policy.

"Look," they would have chorused, "here's the President acting precipitately on the most important appointment he has to make in this critical time in world history!" And "Why does he appoint a sick man?"

President Eisenhower's deliberateness is to be praised rather than condemned. He knew of the arthritic condition of his under secretary of state. He realized the newspapers would be printing pictures of a man on crutches. So it was decided to offset that criticism by getting a medical report to clear up all doubts. It took a few days to get that done.

THE PRESIDENT talked to Mr. Herter on Monday, April 13 — two days before the Wednesday on which the telephone resignation of Mr. Dulles was announced. Mr. Herter was told at that Monday conference by Mr. Eisenhower that, if the medical examination turned out all right, he would be the next secretary of state. Would the critics have a president of the United States give the impression that he was disregarding all suggestions and announce an appointment even before he received a formal letter of resignation?

What if the medical report had turned out unfavorably? As soon as the favorable medical report came on Thursday afternoon, Mr. Herter was promptly asked to be on hand at Augusta, Ga., Saturday morning for the formal announcement of his appointment.

PRISON WORK

"I was in prison, and ye came unto me.—Matthew 35:36

"Never sloppily sentimental but always humane, understanding and helpful, The Salvation Army has a very definite place in crime prevention as well as an important role to play in the rehabilitation of the prisoner."—
Lewis E. Lawes,
Former Warden of
Sing Sing Prison

This week-end, our movement will observe National Correctional Institutions Sunday, and religious services will be conducted in Federal, State, County and City Prisons.

Members of the East Liverpool Corps conduct regular services in both the County and City Jails. Each Sunday morning at 8:30 A. M., Sergeant-Major William Treleven, a consecrated law-worker, and other members hold services in the City Jail, serving coffee and doughnuts to the inmates. This ministry in many instances, has resulted in transformed livcs.

At present we have several parolees who are striving to find "their way back", and it is often difficult to effect their rehabilitation, because of the attitude of those who are wary, and unwilling to co-operate with such a project.

Today The Salvation Army is seeking to improve its program and increase its facilities, striving to help the individual of whom society has exacted a just debt for wrongdoing, and to change him (or her) from a social liability to a social asset.

PRISON WORK

"I was in prison, and ye came unto me.—Matthew 35:36

"Never sloppily sentimental but always humane, understanding and helpful, The Salvation Army has a very definite place in crime prevention as well as an important role to play in the rehabilitation of the prisoner."—

Lewis E. Lawes,
Former Warden of
Sing Sing Prison

This week-end, our movement will observe National Correctional Institutions Sunday, and religious services will be conducted in Federal, State, County and City Prisons.

Members of the East Liverpool Corps conduct regular services in both the County and City Jails. Each Sunday morning at 8:30 A. M., Sergeant-Major William Treleven, a consecrated law-worker, and other members hold services in the City Jail, serving coffee and doughnuts to the inmates. This ministry in many instances, has resulted in transformed lives.

At present we have several parolees who are striving to find "their way back", and it is often difficult to effect their rehabilitation, because of the attitude of those who are wary, and unwilling to co-operate with such a project.

Today The Salvation Army is seeking to improve its program and increase its facilities, striving to help the individual of whom society has exacted a just debt for wrongdoing, and to change him (or her) from a social liability to a social asset.

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale

A Seven-Day 'Mental Diet'

Dr. Peale

An interesting and dynamic friend of mine amusingly calls himself "a former miserable friend." I suppose a "miserable friend" is a person who makes everybody around him miserable because he is miserable himself. I very well recall that in the case of this particular man, others would come into his presence in more or less jaunty and optimistic frames of mind. But he was a jauntiness-extractor. He threw cold water on optimism. In no time at all he could take all the jauntiness out of everyone and drain off the optimism as well. Strangely enough, he thought of himself as a religious man, but he was super-critical of everyone. He would say of someone, "I try not to say critical things about anybody, but ..." There was always a "but." Then the old knife would go in and twist around.

NO SUBJECT of a postitive nature could be broached without his taking a negative position. His natural approach to any question was a negative one. Yet, in a way, this man was a good fellow and you couldn't help but feel that he had real possibilities.

In the course of events, he moved to another part of the country and I didn't see him for three or four years. And when I did see him again he was a different man, almost as though he had been reborn.

I asked him how he had achieved this amazing change. "I went on a seven-day mental diet," he replied. Then he explained that someone had given him a little pamphlet called "The Seven-Day Mental Diet" by the late Emmet Fox.

In this pamphlet Dr. Fox observed that Americans are diet-conscious from a physical point of view—and that it is even more important that we place equal emphasis on the type of thoughts we feed into our minds. And he advocated the following "Seven-Day Mental Diet":

Resolve that from a given moment — any minute you select— you will for seven days thereafter watch your every word and, for those seven days, you will not make a single negative or mean or dishonest statement. You will not make an off-color remark for seven days. You will not voice a depressing concept.

NOW, OF course, that is a big order! A food diet is easy by comparison.

"I tried it one day and failed," my friend continued. "I tried it again and went two days before I slipped. It was really hard going. It's difficult to try thinking differently. I tried again another week and made a poor start. Then I became annoyed and determined that I would stubbornly keep at it because I knew I had to change myself or real happiness was out for me.

"Finally, I succeeded for one whole week! Not once did I fail. I was so worn out with the effort that I thought I would ease off and slump back a bit into easier ways. But, do you know, actually I couldn't do that. I had achieved a change in myself. I had brought myself up to a higher level. At first I was pretty nervous living on this upper-level basis, but the more I kept at it the more adjusted I became to the new status. Since then life has been altogether different." That he was indeed different could not be denied.

Such mental dieting surely offers great possibilities for self-improvement. It is a fact that we are what we think. A mental diet can make a person strong, happy, effective through the simple expedient of changing one's thought pattern.

Isn't this a challenging and worthwhile test to try yourself? Any moment is the perfect time for you to begin.

Why not begin your mental diet today? I will be glad to send you my booklet "Thought Conditioners," which is designed to assist in revamping thought patterns. There is no charge. Just send a card to me in care of this newspaper.

Confident Living

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale

A Seven-Day 'Mental Diet'

An interesting and dynamic friend of mine amusingly calls himself "a former miserable friend." I suppose a "miserable friend" is a person who makes everybody around him miserable because he is miserable himself. I very well recall that in the case of this particular man, others would come into his presence in more or less jaunty and optimistic frames of mind. But he was a jauntiness-extractor. He threw cold water on optimism. In no time at all he could take all the jauntiness out of everyone and drain off the optimism as well. Strangely enough, he thought of himself as a religious man, but he was super-critical of everyone. He would say of someone, "I try not to say critical things about anybody, but ..." There was always a "but." Then the old knife would go in and twist around.

NO SUBJECT of a postitive nature could be broached without his taking a negative position. His natural approach to any question was a negative one. Yet, in a way, this man was a good fellow and you couldn't help but feel that he had real possibilities.

In the course of events, he moved to another part of the country and I didn't see him for three or four years. And when I did see him again he was a different man, almost as though he had been reborn.

I asked him how he had achieved this amazing change. "I went on a seven-day mental diet," he replied. Then he explained that someone had given him a little pamphlet called "The Seven-Day Mental Diet" by the late Emmet Fox.

In this pamphlet Dr. Fox observed that Americans are diet-conscious from a physical point of view—and that it is even more important that we place equal emphasis on the type of thoughts we feed into our minds. And he advocated the following "Seven-Day Mental Diet":

Resolve that from a given moment — any minute you select— you will for seven days thereafter watch your every word and, for those seven days, you will not make a single negative or mean or dishonest statement. You will not make an off-color remark for seven days. You will not voice a depressing concept.

NOW, OF course, that is a big order! A food diet is easy by comparison.

"I tried it one day and failed," my friend continued. "I tried it again and went two days before I slipped. It was really hard going. It's difficult to try thinking differently. I tried again another week and made a poor start. Then I became annoyed and determined that I would stubbornly keep at it because I knew I had to change myself or real happiness was out for me.

"Finally, I succeeded for one whole week! Not once did I fail. I was so worn out with the effort that I thought I would ease off and slump back a bit into easier ways. But, do you know, actually I couldn't do that. I had achieved a change in myself. I had brought myself up to a higher level. At first I was pretty nervous living on this upper-level basis, but the more I kept at it the more adjusted I became to the new status. Since then life has been altogether different." That he was indeed different could not be denied.

Such mental dieting surely offers great possibilities for self-improvement. It is a fact that we are what we think. A mental diet can make a person strong, happy, effective through the simple expedient of changing one's thought pattern.

Isn't this a challenging and worthwhile test to try yourself? Any moment is the perfect time for you to begin.

Why not begin your mental diet today? I will be glad to send you my booklet "Thought Conditioners," which is designed to assist in revamping thought patterns. There is no charge. Just send a card to me in care of this newspaper.

In His IMAGE

How small man seems, compared to a mountain or even a tree. And yet, how great is his potential! Man can fashion a tree into a chair, a boat, or a house. And he can, if he wants, tunnel through a mountain.

Man has been created in God's own image; he has been given dominion over the earth and over all other creatures on the earth. Among the many gifts which God has given to man are intelligence, initiative and will power. But the use of these gifts must be motivated by the love of God if man is to be rewarded with peace and happiness.

Down through the ages, the Church has been teaching man that the misuse of intelligence and power brings on sin and self-destruction, while love-motivated use of God's gifts brings joy, peace of mind and salvation.

Church attendance, prayer and worship will help anyone understand the proper relationship between God and man.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

In His IMAGE

How small man seems, compared to a mountain or even a tree. And yet, how great is his potential! Man can fashion a tree into a chair, a boat, or a house. And he can, if he wants, tunnel through a mountain.

Man has been created in God's own image; he has been given dominion over the earth and over all other creatures on the earth. Among the many gifts which God has given to man are intelligence, initiative and will power. But the use of these gifts must be motivated by the love of God if man is to be rewarded with peace and happiness.

Down through the ages, the Church has been teaching man that the misuse of intelligence and power brings on sin and self-destruction, while love-motivated use of God's gifts brings joy, peace of mind and salvation.

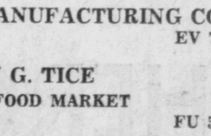

Church attendance, prayer and worship will help anyone understand the proper relationship between God and man.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

"How much should a prescription cost?".....

● This is a fair question, and one we are always glad to discuss. Obviously, prescriptions vary in cost. The price is determined primarily by two factors: the cost of ingredients and the time involved in compounding.

Usually, when a prescription "seems a little high-priced," the reason may be found in the cost of an important ingredient. But such products, because of remarkable curative qualities, may prove a real economy. The medicine costs a little more; the illness costs a great deal less. And, of course, when illness strikes, you seek a quick and certain recovery.

"How much should a prescription cost?".....

● This is a fair question, and one we are always glad to discuss. Obviously, prescriptions vary in cost. The price is determined primarily by two factors: the cost of ingredients and the time involved in compounding.

Usually, when a prescription "seems a little high-priced," the reason may be found in the cost of an important ingredient. But such products, because of remarkable curative qualities, may prove a real economy. The medicine costs a little more; the illness costs a great deal less. And, of course, when illness strikes, you seek a quick and certain recovery.

The Thornberry Memorial award was given to Miss Irene McSwegin on the basis of scholarship, citizenship and musicianship. The outstanding bandsman award was presented to Jim Fletcher on the basis of practice, attendance, attentiveness, promptness and posture.

Band and orchestra letters were given to students who earned 100 points. Junior students with 200 points were presented silver pins and seniors with 300 points got gold pins.

Four seniors received the orchestra letter in addition to the other awards — Larry Clark, Dick Mautz, Fletcher and Miss McSwegin.

On behalf of the band and orchestra, Clark, president of the band, and Mautz, president of the orchestra, presented Allen with a gift certificate.

Judge Dismisses Criminal Case Over Attachment

Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw Friday ordered dismissal of criminal charges that had been filed against Harry Justice, 811 Riverside Ave., Wellsville, on a complaint that he allowed a truck-tractor to be moved after it had been attached by Bailiff O. Earl Greenawalt for sale to satisfy a $600 judgment in a civil action.

Justice, arraigned Tuesday on the criminal charge of resisting and obstructing the bailiff, was given until yesterday to produce the truck for the court. He was freed on a $300 bond.

Justice paid nearly $300 yesterday toward satisfying the judgment against him. Judge Brokaw agreed to dismissal of the criminal charge upon payment of the $8 costs.

The civil suit arose out of purchase of tires. The plaintiff obtained the execution to clear the way for sale of the truck to satisfy the judgment.

Atty. W. S. Foulks, counsel for the plaintiff, agreed to the partial payment on the judgment with the understanding the balance will be paid later, court attaches said.

In another switch, Albert Brooks, 41, of Leetonia R. D. 1 was sentenced to 1-15 years in the State Penitentiary for the burglary of the Lisbon Spring & Wire Co. last July. Also indicted by the April Grand Jury, he had pleaded not guilty when arraigned Wednesday. An accomplice, Charles Boling, 29, of Lancaster, pleaded guilty and asked probation.

Awards Given At Concert Of School Groups

Various awards were presented during intermission at the annual spring concert of the East Liverpool High School instrumental music department Friday night at the Memorial Auditorium. Approximately 350 attended.

The Thornberry Memorial award was given to Miss Irene McSwegin on the basis of scholarship, citizenship and musicianship. The outstanding bandsman award was presented to Jim Fletcher on the basis of practice, attendance, attentiveness, promptness and posture.

Band and orchestra letters were given to students who earned 100 points. Junior students with 200 points were presented silver pins and seniors with 300 points got gold pins.

Four seniors received the orchestra letter in addition to the other awards — Larry Clark, Dick Mautz, Fletcher and Miss McSwegin.

The presentations were made by Don C. Allen, supervisor of instrumental music.

On behalf of the band and orchestra, Clark, president of the band, and Mautz, president of the orchestra, presented Allen with a gift certificate.

Judge Dismisses Criminal Case Over Attachment

Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw Friday ordered dismissal of criminal charges that had been filed against Harry Justice, 811 Riverside Ave., Wellsville, on a complaint that he allowed a truck-tractor to be moved after it had been attached by Bailiff O. Earl Greenawalt for sale to satisfy a $600 judgment in a civil action.

Justice, arraigned Tuesday on the criminal charge of resisting and obstructing the bailiff, was given until yesterday to produce the truck for the court. He was freed on a $300 bond.

Justice paid nearly $300 yesterday toward satisfying the judgment against him. Judge Brokaw agreed to dismissal of the criminal charge upon payment of the $8 costs.

The civil suit arose out of purchase of tires. The plaintiff obtained the execution to clear the way for sale of the truck to satisfy the judgment.

Atty. W. S. Foulks, counsel for the plaintiff, agreed to the partial payment on the judgment with the understanding the balance will be paid later, court attaches said.

City Man Changes Plea And Asks Probation

Gary E. Risher, 19, of 451 Ray St., indicted on four counts of burglary, changed his plea to guilty and requested probation at a hearing before Judge Raymond S. Buzzard Thursday at Lisbon.

He originally pleaded innocent to burglaries at the Midway Diner, Gulf Service Station and Williams Grocery in East Liverpool and the Hillsberry Restaurant south of Lisbon. An investigation of his background was ordered.

In another switch, Albert Brooks, 41, of Leetonia R. D. 1 was sentenced to 1-15 years in the State Penitentiary for the burglary of the Lisbon Spring & Wire Co. last July. Also indicted by the April Grand Jury, he had pleaded not guilty when arraigned Wednesday. An accomplice, Charles Boling, 29, of Lancaster, pleaded guilty and asked probation.

Defends High Court

CINCINNATI (AP) — A former New York federal judge says he thinks the current criticism of the U. S., Supreme Court is just a passing phase. Judge Simon H. Rifkind told the Cincinnati Bar Assn.'s annual meeting Friday night, "Never in its history has the Supreme Court been more diligent (than now) in preserving the powers of the states in field of taxation and in the field of legislative experimentation."

City Parolee Due $20,000 For Accident

A paroled former convict in the State Penitentiary identified as Eldon L. Barnett of East Liverpool is due to receive $20,000 as payment for injuries while working at the Hocking honor camp.

It was the second such payment with a Columbiana County "angle," the State Sundry Claims Board at Columbus announced Friday.

The board said the sum should be paid to Barnett for injuries suffered in a logging accident at the camp. Barnett had asked $50,000.

Payment of $1,207.60 to Ohio State University for treatment of Barnett also was recommended. The board said further treatment must be paid from the lump sum.

This claim and the claim of former penitentiary inmate Solly Hart of Cleveland will be entered in the sundry claims bill which is acted upon by the legislature.

Hart, a convicted murdered, entered a claim for injuries suffered in an automobile accident while he was driving Ohio Penitentiary Warden Ralph W. Alvis.

The body of Hart's victim, a Youngstown hoodlum, was dumped in a briar patch near Rogers at the end of a one-way gang ride.

Indians Rally To Nip White Sox, 6-4; Stretch Lead To 3½

Red Sox Top Nats; A's Thump Tigers

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Home runs or singles, they're all the same to Cleveland as the surprising Indians pad their lead in the American League race.

Their homer spree was ended by Chicago Friday night — after the Tribe had belted 19 in eight consecutive games — but the Indians won their fourth in a row anyway, coming from behind for a 6-4 decision in their first run-in with the White Sox this season. That gave Cleveland, beaten only once in 11 starts, a 3½-game lead over New York's idle second place Yankees.

It also dropped the White Sox four games behind in a third-place tie with Boston and idle Baltimore. The Red Sox moved up with a 7-2 victory at Washington. Kansas City smashed Detroit 10-1, the Tigers' 10th defeat in 11 games.

The Indians, with a wild Herb Score going only three innings, trailed 4-1 until the seventh inning while getting just two hits off Sox starter Dick Donovan. Singles by Minnie Minoso, Russ Nixon and pinch hitter Tito Francona, who drove in a pair with two out, tied it in a three-run seventh. Then Vic Power's infield hit, an error, intentional walk and a passed ball broke the tie in a two-run eighth capped by Woody Held's sacrifice fly.

Gerry Staley (1-1) was the loser in relief. Humberto Robinson, late of the Milwaukee Braves, won in his first AL appearance with two innings of one-hit, shutout relief for the Tribe.

The White Sox scored two in the first inning when Score walked the first four men he faced and Ray Boone hit a sacrifice fly. Score walked seven in his three innings, but allowed just one hit—Boone's solo home run in the third.

Vic Wertz, rebounding quickly from a bout with the flu, drove in five runs for Boston. He doubled home two in the first then counted three in the third with his second home run in two days. Jackie Jensen also hom ered in the five-run third, with both shots off left-handed rookie Jack Kralick.

The Nats managed just six hits off Ike Delock (2-0), who went all the way for his eighth consecutive victory over the Senators since May 12, 1957. Washington scored on Jim Lemon's third homer, a two-run, 420-foot blast in the fourth inning.

Bob Cerv drove in four runs for the A's with three hits in four trips. Ralph Terry gained his first victory and complete game with an eight-hitter, blanking the Tigers after Gail Harris' RBI triple in the first inning.

Mathews Hits Grand Slam As Braves Rip Reds, 10-7

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

After that startling slump in last fall's World Series Eddie Mathews is back doing what comes naturally — hammering home runs.

Mathews was, perhaps, the Milwaukee Braves' biggest disappointment as they blew a 3-1 lead in games and lost the world championship to the New York Yankees last October. The strong-armed third baseman, who had hit 31 home runs during the regular season, managed just two doubles and two singles in 25 at bats for a .160 average and set a series record by striking out 11 times.

If there was any suspicion that the series slump would leave a mark, Mathews has clubbed it away. At the moment he shares the National League home run lead, swatting his fifth and sixth Friday night with No. 6 a grand-slam that carried the first place Braves to a 10-7 victory at Cincinnati.

Mathews' slam, his fifth in the majors, not only gave him a tie with Los Angeles' Don Demeter for the homer lead, but also retained Milwaukee's half - game edge over the second-place Dodgers, who won 3-2 in 10 innings at St. Louis. Third-place San Francisco stayed close, one game back with a 4-3, 11-inning decision over the Chicago Cubs. Pittsburgh rallied for four ninth inning runs and an 8-5 victory at Philadelphia.

Mathews' first of five RBI came when he and Joe Adcock homered in a two-run fourth inning, bringing the Braves from behind and chasing winless Don Newcombe to a third defeat. Roy McMillan, Frank Thomas and Gus Bell, who hit two, homered for the Reds, who trailed 6-5 before Mathews slammed in the eighth off rookie Jim O'Toole. Young Joey Jay won his first, with Don McMahon's relief help, after giving up five hits and walking seven in his 6 2-3 innings.

The Dodgers twice missed the winning run before Duke Snider got it home with a two-out, pinch single in the 10th. John Roseboro, after breaking a 1-1 tie with a double, missed third base while running for home on Ron Fairly's single in the seventh. And just ahead of Snider's clincher, two walks and a single by Charlie Neal had failed to get a run when Gino Cimoli's peg from center nailed Fairly at the plate.

Johnny Podres (2-1), who gave way for Snider, won it with Clem Labine's 1-2-3 mop up in the 10th. Rookie Howie Nunn (0-1) lost it in relief for the Cards, who tied it 2-all on Gene Green's home run in the ninth.

The Pirates, who counted twice on Dick Stuart's first inning home run, blew a 4-0 lead before Smoky Burgess' two-run double put it away in the ninth. The Phils, blanked on two hits for five innings by Ron Kline, scored three in the sixth on Gran Hamner's double, Ed Bouchee's triple and a home run by Wally Post. They took a 5-4 lead in the eighth on Carl Sawatski's two-run double Elroy Face won his second in relief. Al Schroll (1-1) lost it also in relief.

Right fielder Felipe Alou, who doubled the winning Giant run into position for Daryl Spencer's sacrifice fly, also cut off a two-run, tying ninth-inning rally by the Cubs with his throw to the plate. Stu Miller (1-0) was the winner in relief after Johnny Antonelli had held the Cubs to four hits and one run for eight innings. John Buzhardt, third of four Cub pitchers, lost his second.

Browns Obtain Howton In Trade With Packers

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns obtained veteran end Bill Howton in a two-for-one trade Friday with the Green Bay Packers.

The Browns gave up defensive end Bill Quinlan and offensive halfback Lew Carpenter to get Howton, who caught 303 passes for 5,581 yards and 43 touchdowns in his seven seasons with the Packers.

The deal was worked out at Philadelphia following a two-day special meeting of National Football League owners.

Howton, 28, who went to Green Bay from Rice Institute, was obtained as a replacement for Pete Brewster, whose retirement after seven seasons with the Browns left the club hurting for an offensive end.

"Howton is an experienced and fast end—a quality football player who should give us the kind of help we need at offensive end," Coach Paul Browns said.

Quinlan, formerly of Michigan State, has been a regular defensive end for the Browns for the last two seasons. He will be 27 in June.

Carpenter, 26, was second only to fullback Jimmy Brown as Cleveland's biggest ground gainer in 1957 and rated third last season. He was installed as the regular left halfback during the last five weeks of the 1958 campaign after Bobby Mitchell had filled the spot the first half of the season. Carpenter came to the Browns two years ago from the Detroit Lions in exchange for Roger Zatkoff.

Brown indicated earlier this week that Mitchell would be Cleveland's regular left halfback during the 1959 season.

Midland Shut Out, 10-0, By Brighton On 1 Hit

New Brighton's Cowdery flipped a one-hitter at Midland High School's Leopards Thursday afternoon as he hurled his team to a 10-0 victory on the winners' diamond.

Midland's Dean Frederick ruined Cowdery's bid for a no - hit pitching performance with a single — the lone ball hit out of the infield for the losers.

New Brighton plated its runs on eight hits off three Midland pitchers, with Cowdery leading the sluggers by driving in three runs.

Cowdery faced only 17 batters, striking out 12 in going the distance. Eight errors by the Leopards played a major role in the shutout defeat.

Only two Midland base runners reached second and third. Frederick got as far as third before Cowdery retired the side, while Kane was picked off in a run-down between the bases.

Frederick was the losing pitcher, giving up five runs on four hits in four innings. Adkins came on in the fifth and was belted for five more runs. Krizan hurled the final inning and one-third for Midland and fanned three batters.

One of Cowdery's three hits was a double. New Brighton's shortstop, Tunno, also slapped a double.

Semi-Finals Set Tonight In Pro Tennis Tourney

CLEVELAND (AP)—Australian Lew Hoad will meet Francisco (Little Pancho) Seugra tonight and Dick (Big Pancho) Gonzales plays Ashley Cooper in the semi-finals of the annual professional tennis tournament.

Hoad got a stiff battle from the veteran Bobby Riggs in Friday night's quarter-finals but coasted in the second set to win, 6-4, 6-2. Riggs rallied to within one game of Hoad twice in the first set. The 40-year-old New Yorker tired in the later stages.

Frank Parker of Chicago took the first game from the 22-year-old Cooper of Australia but Cooper came back to eliminate Parker, 6-2, 6-4.

Segura, 37, twice a winner of the local tournament, won his way into the semifinals Thursday with a 6-0, 6-3 conquest of Australia's Mal Anderson.

Brookmeade Stable's High Quest and Cavalcade ran one-two in the 1934 Preakness at Pimlico, the only time an entry gained the top two spots.

Leetonia Whips Beaver Local Track Team By 89⅓ To 28⅔

Behind the brilliant performances of Chuck Lippiatt and Gene Leffler, Leetonia's track and field squad trounced Beaver Local, 89 1-3 to 28 2-3, at Leetonia Friday afternoon.

Lippiatt raced to victories in the 100 and 220-yard dashes and cleared the bar at 9 feet, 6 inches to capture the pole vault. His time for the 100 was 10.8 seconds and the 220 was negotiated in 24.5 seconds. He also anchored the winning half-mile relay team, the quartet being rounded out by Bob Gullett, Jerry Gabriel and Roweda.

Leffler won the discus with a toss of 103 feet, 6 inches, the shot put with a heave of 36 feet, 6 inches and covered the 440-yard dash in the winning time of 56.8 seconds. He teamed with Painter, Smith and Tilley to win the mile relay in 4:01.

Other Leetonia firsts were turned in by Gullett in the 120-yard high hurdles in 18.8 seconds, Tilley with a 2:09 in the 880 and Gabriel with a leap of 18 feet, 3 inches in the broad jump.

Beaver Local's firsts were taken by Durbin who won the high jump with a leap of 5 feet, 7 inches, Smith who covered the low hurdles in 25.1 seconds and Bontempt who ran the mile in 5:15.6.

Penn State Wins Relay Event, Sure Of 2 Other Titles

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Penn State, unable to win a major race at the Penn Relays since 1951, happily held the distance medley crown today and appeared virtually certain of grabbing the two-mile and four-mile titles.

Ed Moran of Kane, Pa., one of America's greatest middle distance runners, was unchallenged as he breezed through a 4:15.8 mile anchor as Penn State literally ran away from 19 other college quartets in Friday's opening program at Penn's biggest outdoor carnival in its 65-year history. The time was 9:58.2.

The distance medley was the only championship relay completed.

Today's championship mile relay is the last on the 106-event program in which 3,971 athletes from 381 schools, armed forces units and clubs are competing.

Beavers Rip Salineville, 18-3, Behind Sach's 1-Hit Hurling

Beaver Local hammered two Salineville pitchers for 19 assorted bingles to wallop the Indians, 18-3, behind the one-hit twirling of George Sachs Friday afternoon at the Beaver Local diamond.

Rich Gearin robbed Sachs of a no-hitter when he beat out an infield tapper in the sixth. The Beavers' righthander struck out 12 and walked only three.

Kerr started on the mound for the Indians, but was chased with two out in the third after giving up five runs in the first and two in the second. He was relieved by Hilliard, who also was hit freely.

The Beavers collected five more in the third, four in the fourth and added two more in the sixth to complete the rout. Salineville got one in the first and picked up two more in the seventh.

Dale Barnhart paced the Beavers' 19-hit attack with four hits, including a double. Thurm Allen also wielded a wicked club, hammering a home run and two doubles. Both Barnhart and Allen drove in five runs. Chuck Taylor also connected for a round tripper for the Beavers.

Army's Athletic Board To Study Bowl Game Ban

NEW YORK (AP) — Army's ban against postseason competitions, including the football bowls, is going to be reviewed by its athletic board.

This doesn't mean that the West Pointers are going to make any immediate about-face on their previous stand. But the fact that the five-man board is going to look into the subject appears significant.

Col. Francis J. Roberts, Army's director of athletics, said Friday the question of bowl play would be one of many things which will be taken up by the board appointed last week.

The no-bowl policy is believed to be one of the reasons behind the January resignation of Col. Earl (Red) Blaik as football coach and director of athletics. The Cadets had an unbeaten season and were ranked third in the nation.

The military academy is the only one of the three service schools playing major football that doesn't go a-bowling.

Baseball's Three I League is in its 52nd season.

56th ABC Tourney Will Close Sunday

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The 56th American Bowling Congress championships closes Sunday after 72 days and nights of almost continuous competition.

The prospect of any last-minute upstarts stealing the show from the current leaders is dim. Most of the contestants in the dwindling hours of the tournament are lower average bowlers.

Leading the singles and all-events divisions, with 764 and 2,116, respective, is Detroit's Ed Lubanski.

The leading doubles combination is Gib Fishbach and Barney Vehige of St. Louis with a 1372 series.

'24-Mile Home Run' Breaks Up Ball Game

BUTTE, Mont. (AP)—With the score tied 4-4 and one on in an intrasquad game, shortstop Dan Trbovich of Montana School of Mines unleashed a mighty belt.

The ball cleared the outfield, which is not fenced, and landed in a car of a passing ore train. It was carried to Anaconda, 24 miles away.

Nicklaus, Andrews Meet In North-South Finals

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Jack Nicklaus, who came here heralded as a rapidly maturing "boy wonder" of amateur golf, and veteran Gene Andrews, who arrived with no fanfare, met today over 36 holes for the North and South Championship.

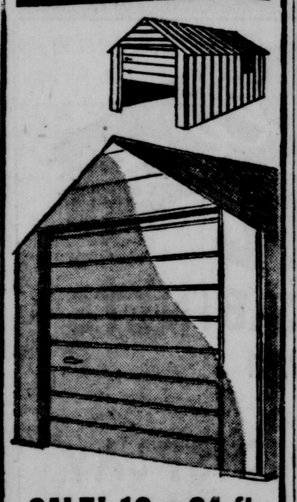

Nicklaus, at 19 is 25 years younger than his insurance man rival from Pacific Palisades, Calif. Both are playing in their first North and South.

Niclaus, Walker Cup team member from Columbus, Ohio, won his semifinals test from Bob Cochran of St. Louis, 2 up Friday. Andrews led from the first hole in a 3 and 2 defeat of Jack Penrose, Miami, Fla.

Indians Rally To Nip White Sox, 6-4; Stretch Lead To 3½

Red Sox Top Nats; A's Thump Tigers

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Home runs or singles, they're all the same to Cleveland as the surprising Indians pad their lead in the American League race.

Their homer spree was ended by Chicago Friday night — after the Tribe had belted 19 in eight consecutive games — but the Indians won their fourth in a row anyway, coming from behind for a 6-4 decision in their first run-in with the White Sox this season. That gave Cleveland, beaten only once in 11 starts, a 3½-game lead over New York's idle second place Yankees.

It also dropped the White Sox four games behind in a third-place tie with Boston and idle Baltimore. The Red Sox moved up with a 7-2 victory at Washington. Kansas City smashed Detroit 10-1, the Tigers' 10th defeat in 11 games.

The Indians, with a wild Herb Score going only three innings, trailed 4-1 until the seventh inning while getting just two hits off Sox starter Dick Donovan. Singles by Minnie Minoso, Russ Nixon and pinch hitter Tito Francona, who drove in a pair with two out, tied it in a three-run seventh. Then Vic Power's infield hit, an error, intentional walk and a passed ball broke the tie in a two-run eighth capped by Woody Held's sacrifice fly.

Gerry Staley (1-1) was the loser in relief. Humberto Robinson, late of the Milwaukee Braves, won in his first AL appearance with two innings of one-hit, shutout relief for the Tribe.

The White Sox scored two in the first inning when Score walked the first four men he faced and Ray Boone hit a sacrifice fly. Score walked seven in his three innings, but allowed just one hit—Boone's solo home run in the third.

Vic Wertz, rebounding quickly from a bout with the flu, drove in five runs for Boston. He doubled home two in the first then counted three in the third with his second home run in two days. Jackie Jensen also homered in the five-run third, with both shots off left-handed rookie Jack Kralick.

The Nats managed just six hits off Ike Delock (2-0), who went all the way for his eighth consecutive victory over the Senators since May 12, 1957. Washington scored on Jim Lemon's third homer, a two-run, 420-foot blast in the fourth inning.

Bob Cerv drove in four runs for the A's with three hits in four trips. Ralph Terry gained his first victory and complete game with an eight-hitter, blanking the Tigers after Gail Harris' RBI triple in the first inning.

Mathews Hits Grand Slam As Braves Rip Reds, 10-7

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

After that startling slump in last fall's World Series Eddie Mathews is back doing what comes naturally — hammering home runs.

Mathews was, perhaps, the Milwaukee Braves' biggest disappointment as they blew a 3-1 lead in games and lost the world championship to the New York Yankees last October. The strong-armed third baseman, who had hit 31 home runs during the regular season, managed just two doubles and two singles in 25 at bats for a .160 average and set a series record by striking out 11 times.

If there was any suspicion that the series slump would leave a mark, Mathews has clubbed it away. At the moment he shares the National League home run lead, swatting his fifth and sixth Friday night with No. 6 a grand-slam that carried the first place Braves to a 10-7 victory at Cincinnati.

Mathews' slam, his fifth in the majors, not only gave him a tie with Los Angeles' Don Demeter for the homer lead, but also retained Milwaukee's half - game edge over the second-place Dodgers, who won 3-2 in 10 innings at St. Louis. Third-place San Francisco stayed close, one game back with a 4-3, 11-inning decision over the Chicago Cubs. Pittsburgh rallied for four ninth inning runs and an 8-5 victory at Philadelphia.

Mathews' first of five RBI came when he and Joe Adcock homered in a two-run fourth inning, bringing the Braves from behind and chasing winless Don Newcombe to a third defeat. Roy McMillan, Frank Thomas and Gus Bell, who hit two, homered for the Reds, who trailed 6-5 before Mathews slammed in the eighth off rookie Jim O'Toole. Young Joey Jay won his first, with Don McMahon's relief help, after giving up five hits and walking seven in his 6 2-3 innings.

The Dodgers twice missed the winning run before Duke Snider got it home with a two-out, pinch single in the 10th. John Roseboro, after breaking a 1-1 tie with a double, missed third base while running for home on Ron Fairly's single in the seventh. And just ahead of Snider's clincher, two walks and a single by Charlie Neal had failed to get a run when Gino Cimoli's peg from center nailed Fairly at the plate.

Johnny Podres (2-1), who gave way for Snider, won it with Clem Labine's 1-2-3 mop up in the 10th. Rookie Howie Nunn (0-1) lost it in relief for the Cards, who tied it 2-all on Gene Green's home run in the ninth.

The Pirates, who counted twice on Dick Stuart's first inning home run, blew a 4-0 lead before Smoky Burgess' two-run double put it away in the ninth. The Phils, blanked on two hits for five innings by Ron Kline, scored three in the sixth on Gran Hamner's double, Ed Bouchee's triple and a home run by Wally Post. They took a 5-4 lead in the eighth on Carl Sawatski's two-run double Elroy Face won his second in relief. Al Schroll (1-1) lost it also in relief.

Right fielder Felipe Alou, who doubled the winning Giant run into position for Daryl Spencer's sacrifice fly, also cut off a two-run, tying ninth-inning rally by the Cubs with his throw to the plate. Stu Miller (1-0) was the winner in relief after Johnny Antonelli had held the Cubs to four hits and one run for eight innings. John Buzhardt, third of four Cub pitchers, lost his second.

Browns Obtain Howton In Trade With Packers

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns obtained veteran end Bill Howton in a two-for-one trade Friday with the Green Bay Packers.

The Browns gave up defensive end Bill Quinlan and offensive halfback Lew Carpenter to get Howton, who caught 303 passes for 5,581 yards and 43 touchdowns in his seven seasons with the Packers.

The deal was worked out at Philadelphia following a two-day special meeting of National Football League owners.

Howton, 28, who went to Green Bay from Rice Institute, was obtained as a replacement for Pete Brewster, whose retirement after seven seasons with the Browns left the club hurting for an offensive end.

"Howton is an experienced and fast end—a quality football player who should give us the kind of help we need at offensive end," Coach Paul Browns said.

Quinlan, formerly of Michigan State, has been a regular defensive end for the Browns for the last two seasons. He will be 27 in June.

Carpenter, 26, was second only to fullback Jimmy Brown as Cleveland's biggest ground gainer in 1957 and rated third last season. He was installed as the regular left halfback during the last five weeks of the 1958 campaign after Bobby Mitchell had filled the spot the first half of the season. Carpenter came to the Browns two years ago from the Detroit Lions in exchange for Roger Zatkoff.

Brown indicated earlier this week that Mitchell would be Cleveland's regular left halfback during the 1959 season.

Midland Shut Out, 10-0, By Brighton On 1 Hit

New Brighton's Cowdery flipped a one-hitter at Midland High School's Leopards Thursday afternoon as he hurled his team to a 10-0 victory on the winners' diamond.

Midland's Dean Frederick ruined Cowdery's bid for a no - hit pitching performance with a single — the lone ball hit out of the infield for the losers.

New Brighton plated its runs on eight hits off three Midland pitchers, with Cowdery leading the sluggers by driving in three runs.

Cowdery faced only 17 batters, striking out 12 in going the distance. Eight errors by the Leopards played a major role in the shutout defeat.

Only two Midland base runners reached second and third. Frederick got as far as third before Cowdery retired the side, while Kane was picked off in a run-down between the bases.

Frederick was the losing pitcher, giving up five runs on four hits in four innings. Adkins came on in the fifth and was belted for five more runs. Krizan hurled the final inning and one-third for Midland and fanned three batters.

One of Cowdery's three hits was a double. New Brighton's shortstop, Tunno, also slapped a double.

Semi-Finals Set Tonight In Pro Tennis Tourney

CLEVELAND (AP)—Australian Lew Hoad will meet Francisco (Little Pancho) Seugra tonight and Dick (Big Pancho) Gonzales plays Ashley Cooper in the semi-finals of the annual professional tennis tournament.

Hoad got a stiff battle from the veteran Bobby Riggs in Friday night's quarter-finals but coasted in the second set to win, 6-4, 6-2. Riggs rallied to within one game of Hoad twice in the first set. The 40-year-old New Yorker tired in the later stages.

Frank Parker of Chicago took the first game from the 22-year-old Cooper of Australia but Cooper came back to eliminate Parker, 6-2, 6-4.

Segura, 37, twice a winner of the local tournament, won his way into the semifinals Thursday with a 6-0, 6-3 conquest of Australia's Mal Anderson.

Brookmeade Stable's High Quest and Cavalcade ran one-two in the 1934 Preakness at Pimlico, the only time an entry gained the top two spots.

Leetonia Whips Beaver Local Track Team By 89⅓ To 28⅔

Behind the brilliant performances of Chuck Lippiatt and Gene Leffler, Leetonia's track and field squad trounced Beaver Local, 89 1-3 to 28 2-3, at Leetonia Friday afternoon.

Lippiatt raced to victories in the 100 and 220-yard dashes and cleared the bar at 9 feet, 6 inches to capture the pole vault. His time for the 100 was 10.8 seconds and the 220 was negotiated in 24.5 seconds. He also anchored the winning half-mile relay team, the quartet being rounded out by Bob Gullett, Jerry Gabriel and Roweda.

Leffler won the discus with a toss of 103 feet, 6 inches, the shot put with a heave of 36 feet, 6 inches and covered the 440-yard dash in the winning time of 56.8 seconds. He teamed with Painter, Smith and Tilley to win the mile relay in 4:01.

Other Leetonia firsts were turned in by Gullett in the 120-yard high hurdles in 18.8 seconds, Tilley with a 2:09 in the 880 and Gabriel with a leap of 18 feet, 3 inches in the broad jump.

Beaver Local's firsts were taken by Durbin who won the high jump with a leap of 5 feet, 7 inches, Smith who covered the low hurdles in 25.1 seconds and Bontempt who ran the mile in 5:15.6.

Beavers Rip Salineville, 18-3, Behind Sach's 1-Hit Hurling

Beaver Local hammered two Salineville pitchers for 19 assorted bingles to wallop the Indians, 18-3, behind the one-hit twirling of George Sachs Friday afternoon at the Beaver Local diamond.

Rich Gearin robbed Sachs of a no-hitter when he beat out an infield tapper in the sixth. The Beavers' righthander struck out 12 and walked only three.

Kerr started on the mound for the Indians, but was chased with two out in the third after giving up five runs in the first and two in the second. He was relieved by Hilliard, who also was hit freely.

The Beavers collected five more in the third, four in the fourth and added two more in the sixth to complete the rout. Salineville got one in the first and picked up two more in the seventh.

Dale Barnhart paced the Beavers' 19-hit attack with four hits, including a double. Thurm Allen also wielded a wicked club, hammering a home run and two doubles. Both Barnhart and Allen drove in five runs. Chuck Taylor also connected for a round tripper for the Beavers.

Army's Athletic Board To Study Bowl Game Ban

NEW YORK (AP) — Army's ban against postseason competitions, including the football bowls, is going to be reviewed by its athletic board.

This doesn't mean that the West Pointers are going to make any immediate about-face on their previous stand. But the fact that the five-man board is going to look into the subject appears significant.

Col. Francis J. Roberts, Army's director of athletics, said Friday the question of bowl play would be one of many things which will be taken up by the board appointed last week.

The no-bowl policy is believed to be one of the reasons behind the January resignation of Col. Earl (Red) Blaik as football coach and director of athletics. The Cadets had an unbeaten season and were ranked third in the nation.

The military academy is the only one of the three service schools playing major football that doesn't go a-bowling.

Baseball's Three I League is in its 52nd season.

56th ABC Tourney Will Close Sunday

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The 56th American Bowling Congress championships closes Sunday after 72 days and nights of almost continuous competition.

The prospect of any last-minute upstarts stealing the show from the current leaders is dim. Most of the contestants in the dwindling hours of the tournament are lower average bowlers.

Leading the singles and all-events divisions, with 764 and 2,116, respective, is Detroit's Ed Lubanski.

The leading doubles combination is Gib Fishbach and Barney Vehige of St. Louis with a 1372 series.

'24-Mile Home Run' Breaks Up Ball Game

BUTTE, Mont. (AP)—With the score tied 4-4 and one on in an intrasquad game, shortstop Dan Trbovich of Montana School of Mines unleashed a mighty belt.

The ball cleared the outfield, which is not fenced, and landed in a car of a passing ore train. It was carried to Anaconda, 24 miles away.

Penn State Wins Relay Event, Sure Of 2 Other Titles

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Penn State, unable to win a major race at the Penn Relays since 1951, happily held the distance medley crown today and appeared virtually certain of grabbing the two-mile and four-mile titles.

Ed Moran of Kane, Pa., one of America's greatest middle distance runners, was unchallenged as he breezed through a 4:15.8 mile anchor as Penn State literally ran away from 19 other college quartets in Friday's opening program at Penn's biggest outdoor carnival in its 65-year history. The time was 9:58.2.

The distance medley was the only championship relay completed.

Today's championship mile relay is the last on the 106-event program in which 3,971 athletes from 381 schools, armed forces units and clubs are competing.

Hitting — Ed Mathews, Braves, drove in five runs with two homers, the second an eighth-inning grand slam that left the Reds behind for a 10-7 victory.

Pitching — Ralph Terry, Athletics, scattered eight hits for his first victory, striking out seven and blanking the Tigers after the first inning for a 10-1 triumph.

Nicklaus, Andrews Meet In North-South Finals

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Jack Nicklaus, who came here heralded as a rapidly maturing "boy wonder" of amateur golf, and veteran Gene Andrews, who arrived with no fanfare, met today over 36 holes for the North and South Championship.

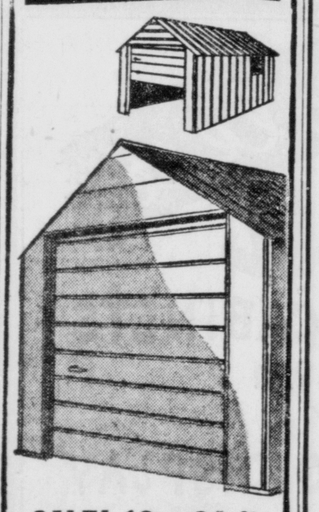

Nicklaus, at 19 is 25 years younger than his insurance man rival from Pacific Palisades, Calif. Both are playing in their first North and South.

Niclaus, Walker Cup team member from Columbus, Ohio, won his semifinals test from Bob Cochran of St. Louis, 2 up Friday. Andrews led from the first hole in a 3 and 2 defeat of Jack Penrose, Miami, Fla.

Souchak's 136 Leads By 4 In Las Vegas Golf

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Mike Souchak held a firm grip on first place today as the field of 26 professional golfers went into the third round of the $46,620 Tournament of Champions.

The big fellow from Grossinger, N.Y., had rounds of 66-70 for a 36-hole total of 136 and a four-stroke bulge over his nearest challengers.

The scene is the Desert Inn Country Club, whose 7,073-yard, par 36-36—72 course, plus gusts of wind, put a damper on some of the hopes in the second round.

Deadlocked at 140 were four pros—Art Wall Jr., Julius Boros, 23-year-old John McMullin and Ernie Vossler.

George Bayer was alone at 142, and tied at 143 were Gene Littler, three-time winner of the event, and Arnold Palmer.

Four Derby Eligibles In Downs Start

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — It's only a $5,000 race, not even billed as the feature, but the Stepping Stone Purse will get most of the attention at the opening of Churchill Downs today.

The seven - furlong event includes four well-liked Kentucky Derby eligibles in its expected field of seven.

They are Silver Spoon, On-and-On, Easy Spur and Sword Dancer.

Silver Spoon's trainer, Bob Wheeler, said the unbeaten filly's performance in the Stepping Stone will determine whether she goes in the derby or in the fillies-only Kentucky Oaks, run next Friday.

Willie Shoemaker, who'll be aboard Sword Dancer, said he'll decide after the race whether he'll ride the Dancer or Tomy Lee in the derby.

Easy Spur and Sword Dancer fought it out in the Florida Derby, with Easy Spur the winner.

Calumet is pinning its hopes for a third straight derby winner on On-and-On. Calumet's Iron Liege was the 1957 winner and Tim Tam came through in 1958.

Pitchers Hold Spotlight In International Loop

By The Associated Press

It was pitchers' night in the International League Friday with Richmond's Bill Short, Havana's Vincente Amor, Miami's Harry Byrd and Toronto's Frank Funk sharing the spotlight.

Short, a Binghamton graduate making his first start for Richmond, falled 10, walked three and permitted only six hits in the Virginians' 1-0 victory over Montreal.

Amor hurled a four-hitter as he pitched Havana to a 1-0 victory over league leading Rochester.

Byrd, the ex-American leaguer, scattered six Buffalo hits as Miami triumphed 5-1.

Funk, relieving starter Hal Woodeshick, stopped a Columbus rally and preserved Toronto's 6-5 victory which snapped a four-game winning streak for the Jets. Eric Rodin and Joe Hannah drove in two runs apiece for the winners.

County Game Group Will Hold Ham Shoot

LISBON—The Columbiana County Fish and Game Association will hold a ham shoot Sunday at the club range on County Route 419 near the junction of State Route 7.

In addition to muzzle loaders and shotguns, there will be matches for .22-caliber iron sight shooters. Shotgun shells will be furnished by the club.

Shooting will begin at 10 a. m. and lunch will be served.

Rookie Bill Hicke of Rochester, with 97 points on 41 goals and 56 assists, led the American Hockey League in scoring last season.

Jordan Gains Nod To Retain Crown

"I'm looking towards a nontitle June bout, probably in Madison Square Garden," said Jordan after his comparatively easy conquest of Virgil Akins despite a damaged right hand.

"But I like the big gate and Basilio could really bring the big gate," added the 24-year-old boxing dandy from Los Angeles.

Basilio is playing ring-around-the-rosy with Sugar Ray Robinson, who divested him of the middleweight title last year and has been avoiding him ever since.

In the war of nerves, Basilio could give up on Robinson and try for a fat pay check in a return to the welter ranks.

It was then Akins, 31-year-old former champ, made his last bid to stay in boxing's big time with a couple of shots to the jaw which really staggered Jordan.

It also was then that Jordan badly bruised his right hand in a poke on the top of Akins' head. Although Jordan wound up with a badly puffed hand, you couldn't tell it by the way he put Akins into eclipse the remaining 13 rounds.

The government tied up Akins purse, saying he owes $22,599 in back taxes. The match, televised nationally, returned a net gate of $44,746. Each fighter received 30 per cent of the gate, plus $15,000 from TV, worth $28,423 apiece.

Two Records Fall At Drake

Friday's opening day produced two records, one bettering the American mark for the sprint medley relay.

A record seemed certain to come from Bill Alley, the Kansas javelin thrower who has surpassed the recognized American mark with a toss of 270 feet, 1½ inches.

Friday, Jamaican George Kerr anchored Illinois en route to the fastest American collegiate sprint medley relay mark in history. Illinois' time was 3:17.8 and Kerr had an unofficial half-mile 1:46.6 clocking.

The team time topped the recognized American record of 3:18.8 by California last year.

Oregon, getting two good miles from sophomore George Larson and Jim Grelle, came up with a four-mile relay record of 17:15.2 that knocked out the 17:15.9 by Kansas in 1952.

Souchak's 136 Leads By 4 In Las Vegas Golf

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Mike Souchak held a firm grip on first place today as the field of 26 professional golfers went into the third round of the $46,620 Tournament of Champions.

The big fellow from Grossinger, N.Y., had rounds of 66-70 for a 36-hole total of 136 and a four-stroke bulge over his nearest challengers.

The scene is the Desert Inn Country Club, whose 7,073-yard, par 36-36—72 course, plus gusts of wind, put a damper on some of the hopes in the second round.

Deadlocked at 140 were four pros—Art Wall Jr., Julius Boros, 23-year-old John McMullin and Ernie Vossler.

George Bayer was alone at 142, and tied at 143 were Gene Littler, three-time winner of the event, and Arnold Palmer.

Four Derby Eligibles In Downs Start

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — It's only a $5,000 race, not even billed as the feature, but the Stepping Stone Purse will get most of the attention at the opening of Churchill Downs today.

The seven - furlong event includes four well-liked Kentucky Derby eligibles in its expected field of seven.

They are Silver Spoon, On-and-On, Easy Spur and Sword Dancer.

Silver Spoon's trainer, Bob Wheeler, said the unbeaten filly's performance in the Stepping Stone will determine whether she goes in the derby or in the fillies-only Kentucky Oaks, run next Friday.

Willie Shoemaker, who'll be aboard Sword Dancer, said he'll decide after the race whether he'll ride the Dancer or Tomy Lee in the derby.

Easy Spur and Sword Dancer fought it out in the Florida Derby, with Easy Spur the winner.

Calumet is pinning its hopes for a third straight derby winner on On-and-On. Calumet's Iron Liege was the 1957 winner and Tim Tam came through in 1958.

Jordan Gains Nod To Retain Crown

"I'm looking towards a nontitle June bout, probably in Madison Square Garden," said Jordan after his comparatively easy conquest of Virgil Akins despite a damaged right hand.

"But I like the big gate and Basilio could really bring the big gate," added the 24-year-old boxing dandy from Los Angeles.

Basilio is playing ring-around-the-rosy with Sugar Ray Robinson, who divested him of the middleweight title last year and has been avoiding him ever since.

In the war of nerves, Basilio could give up on Robinson and try for a fat pay check in a return to the welter ranks.

It was then Akins, 31-year-old former champ, made his last bid to stay in boxing's big time with a couple of shots to the jaw which really staggered Jordan.

It also was then that Jordan badly bruised his right hand in a poke on the top of Akins' head. Although Jordan wound up with a badly puffed hand, you couldn't tell it by the way he put Akins into eclipse the remaining 13 rounds.

The government tied up Akins purse, saying he owes $22,599 in back taxes. The match, televised nationally, returned a net gate of $44,746. Each fighter received 30 per cent of the gate, plus $15,000 from TV, worth $28,423 apiece.

Two Records Fall At Drake

Friday's opening day produced two records, one bettering the American mark for the sprint medley relay.

A record seemed certain to come from Bill Alley, the Kansas javelin thrower who has surpassed the recognized American mark with a toss of 270 feet, 1½ inches.

Friday, Jamaican George Kerr anchored Illinois en route to the fastest American collegiate sprint medley relay mark in history. Illinois' time was 3:17.8 and Kerr had an unofficial half-mile 1:46.6 clocking.

The team time topped the recognized American record of 3:18.8 by California last year.

Oregon, getting two good miles from sophomore George Larson and Jim Grelle, came up with a four-mile relay record of 17:15.2 that knocked out the 17:15.9 by Kansas in 1952.

Pitchers Hold Spotlight In International Loop

By The Associated Press

It was pitchers' night in the International League Friday with Richmond's Bill Short, Havana's Vincente Amor, Miami's Harry Byrd and Toronto's Frank Funk sharing the spotlight.

Short, a Binghamton graduate making his first start for Richmond, falled 10, walked three and permitted only six hits in the Virginians' 1-0 victory over Montreal.

Amor hurled a four-hitter as he pitched Havana to a 1-0 victory over league leading Rochester.

Funk, relieving starter Hal Woodeshick, stopped a Columbus rally and preserved Toronto's 6-5 victory which snapped a four-game winning streak for the Jets. Eric Rodin and Joe Hannah drove in two runs apiece for the winners.

SECTION 3. Said tax shall be levied, collected and paid with respect to salaries, wages, commissions and other compensation earned on or after the effective date of this Ordinance and with respect to the net profit of businesses, professions and other activities earned on and after said date. SECTION 4. RETURN AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

A. Each taxpayer whose earnings or profits are subject to the tax imposed by this Ordinance shall, on or before April 15, 1960, and on April 15 of each year thereafter, make and file a final return with the City Treasurer on a form obtainable from the City Treasurer, setting forth the aggregate amount of salary, wages or other compensation and net profits earned by him during the preceding year and subject to said tax, together with other pertinent information as the City Treasurer may require. Provided, however, that when the final return is made for a fiscal year or other period different from the calendar year, the return shall be made within 105 days from the end of said fiscal year or other period.

B. The return shall also show the amount of the tax imposed on such earnings and profits. The taxpayer making the said return shall, at the time of the filing thereof, pay to the City Treasurer the amount of taxes shown as due thereon. Provided, however, that where any portion of said tax shall have been paid by such taxpayer pursuant to the provisions of Section 5 and/or Section 6 of this Ordinance, credit for the amount so paid shall be deducted from the amount shown to be due and only the balance, if any, shall be due and payable at the time of filing said final return.

C. The return of an employer or employers showing the amount of tax deducted by said employer or employers from the salaries, wages or compensation of any employees, and paid by him or them to the City Treasurer, shall be accepted as the return required of any employee whose sole income subject to the tax of six-tenths of one per cent, is such salary, wages or compensation.

D. Upon written request of the taxpayer, the City Treasurer may extend the time for filing the annual return for a period of not more than six months or not more than thirty days beyond any extension requested of and granted by the Bureau of Internal Revenue for the filing of the Federal Income Tax Return.

SECTION 5. COLLECTION AT SOURCE.

Each employer within the City of East Liverpool who employs within the City one or more persons on a salary, wage, commission or other compensation basis, excluding exempted incomes set forth in Section 14 of this Ordinance, shall deduct at the time of the payment of such salary, wage, commission or other compensation, the tax of six-tenths of one per cent, of salaries, wages, commissions or other compensation due by the said employer to the said employee and shall make a return and pay to the City Treasurer the amount of taxes so deducted as follows:

A. For the three (3) months ending March 31st, on or before April 30th;

B. For the three (3) months ending June 30th, on or before July 31st;

C. For the three (3) months ending September 30th on or before October 31st;

D. For the three (3) months ending December 31st, on or before the following January 31st.

Said return shall be on a form prescribed by the City Auditor and furnished by the City Treasurer. Such employer, in collecting said tax, shall be deemed to hold the same as trustee for the benefit of the City of East Liverpool until payment is made by such employer to the City of East Liverpool, and any such tax collected by such employer from his employees shall, until the same is paid to the City of East Liverpool, be deemed a trust fund in the hands of such employer.

SECTION 6. DECLARATIONS.

Every taxpayer who anticipates any income which is not subject to the provisions of Section 5 hereof shall file a declaration of the estimated tax for the taxable year of 1959. Such declaration shall be filed on or before July 15, 1959, and thereafter a similar declaration shall be filed for each calendar year on or before April 15 of each ensuing year for the duration of the taxes referred to herein, by all such taxpayers.

Such declaration shall be filed upon a form prescribed by the City Auditor and furnished by the City Treasurer, which form may simply state that the figures used in making such declaration are the figures used in making the declaration of the estimate for the Federal Income Tax, provided that it is understood that such figures may be modified according to the provisions of this Ordinance so that the declaration required by this section shall set forth only such income as is taxable under the provisions of this Ordinance.

The declaration to be filed on April 15 of each year shall be accompanied by payment of at least one-fourth of the estimated annual tax, and at least a similar amount shall be paid on or before June 30th, September 30th and December 31st of such year. Provided, however, that such estimate may be amended at the time of the making of any quarterly payment, and further provided that on or before April 15 of the year following that for which declaration was filed, a final return shall be filed and any balance which may be due the City of East Liverpool shall be paid therewith. Should it appear that such taxpayer has paid more than the amount of tax to which the City of East Liverpool would be entitled, a refund of the amount so over paid shall be made, or same may be applied toward the declaration of tax due for the ensuing year.

SECTION 6-A. RECIPROCITY PROVISION. CREDIT FOR TAX PAID TO OTHER MUNICIPALITIES.

1. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Ordinance, when a non-resident of East Liverpool is subject to the tax imposed by this Ordinance and is also subject to tax on the same income in the municipality of his residence, a credit of 50 per cent of the tax due under this Ordinance or 50 per cent of the tax due under the Ordinance of such other municipality, whichever is the lesser, shall be allowed against the tax due under this Ordinance, provided however, that such credit shall not be allowed unless such other municipality imposes on its residents a tax on the same income and reciprocal provision is made in the Ordinance of such other municipality granting to non-residents thereof a credit of not less than the percentage provided for herein against the tax levied thereby, and provided further that such reciprocal credit shall not be allowed unless such non-resident is liable and has acknowledged such liability in the municipality of his residence for any tax due after such reciprocal credit is allowed, and the municipality of his residence furnishes evidence of payment of tax therein or evidence of assignment by the taxpayer of his claim for reciprocal credit to such other municipality.

The credit allowed a non-resident under this paragraph may be assigned to the municipality of his residence and the amount of such credit paid to such other municipality in such manner as the City Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool may prescribe.

2. (a) When a resident of East Liverpool is subject to a municipal income tax in another municipality on the same income taxable under this Ordinance, a credit shall be allowed against East Liverpool income tax of the amount of net tax for which he is liable under the Ordinance of such other municipality, but such credit shall not exceed 50 per cent of the tax due hereunder.

(b) In the event an East Liverpool resident is entitled to a reciprocity credit under the Ordinance of another municipality, or is entitled to credit for taxes paid another municipality, such East Liverpool resident is required to file a return or form in such manner as the City Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool may prescribe.

Assignment of any claim for refund to which an East Liverpool resident may be entitled from another municipality shall be tentatively accepted as payment of that portion of East Liverpool income tax represented by such assignment. Provided, however, if satisfactory evidence is offered that the taxpayer is entitled to the claim covered by the assignment, such taxpayer shall not be deprived of credit therefor because of fault or neglect on the part of either municipality.

In the event such East Liverpool resident fails, neglects or refuses to file such return or form as is prescribed by the City Treasurer, he shall not be entitled to such credit and shall be considered in violation of this Ordinance for failure to file a return and make payment of taxes due hereunder.

3. Any claims for credit for income taxes paid another municipality on the same income taxable hereunder, or claim for or assignment of any refund due to the credit provided for herein, must be filed with the City Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool on or before December 31st of the year following that for which such credit is claimed, provided that, in the case such claim for reciprocity refund shall have been assigned to the municipality or residence, such municipality of residence shall file a claim for refund with the City Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool on or before January 31st following. Failure to file such claim for reciprocity credit or refund, or assignment thereof, within the time prescribed herein shall render such credit, claim for refund, or assignment null and void.

SECTION 7. ADMINISTRATION. DUTIES OF CITY AUDITOR AND CITY TREASURER.

The taxes imposed and levied pursuant to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be administered by such deputies and clerks within the City Treasurer's Department as may be from time to time determined by the Council of the City of East Liverpool.

The City Auditor shall prescribe the form of accounts and reports to be rendered to his office, the form and method of keeping account within the income tax office. The City Auditor shall be charged with the interval audit of all accounts and returns, including the correction of the returns.

The City Treasurer shall demand, collect and receive the tax imposed by this Ordinance. The City Treasurer shall keep an accurate record showing the amount received from each taxpayer and the date of said receipt. The City Treasurer shall make a written report to Council each quarter of all monies collected hereunder during the preceding quarter.

SECTION 8. The City Treasurer, or any authorized employee, is hereby authorized to examine the books, papers and records of any employer, or of any taxpayer or person subject to the tax, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any return made, or, if no return was made, to ascertain the tax due. Every such employer, supposed employer, taxpayer or supposed taxpayer, is hereby directed and required to furnish to the City Treasurer, or his duly authorized agent or employee, the means, facilities and opportunity for making such examination and investigations as are hereby authorized.

The City Treasurer, or his duly authorized agent or employee, is hereby authorized to examine any person, employer or employee under oath, concerning any income which was or should have been returned for taxation, and for this purpose may compel the production of books, papers and records and the attendance of all persons before him, whether as parties or witnesses, whenever he believes such persons have knowledge of such income.

The refusal of such examination by any employer, employee or person subject or presumed to be subject to the tax shall be deemed a violation of this Ordinance.

Tax returns and all audit papers and information connected therewith are confidential and shall be carefully preserved so that they shall not be available for inspection by anyone other than the proper agents of the City of East Liverpool for official purposes.

Any information gained as the result of any returns, investigations, hearings or verifications required or authorized by this Ordinance shall be confidential, except for official purposes, and except in accordance with proper judicial order. Any person divulging such information shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine or penalty of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or imprisoned for not more than six (6) months in the city jail, or both such fine and imprisonment for such offense. In addition to the above penalties, any employee of the City of East Liverpool who violates the provisions of this section relative to disclosures of confidential information shall be immediately dismissed from the service of the City.

SECTION 9. INTEREST AND PENALTIES.

All taxes imposed by this Ordinance, including taxes withheld from wages by an employer and remaining unpaid after they have become due, shall bear interest on the amount of the unpaid tax at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum, and the taxpayers upon whom said taxes are imposed, and the employers required by this Ordinance to deduct, withhold and pay taxes imposed by the Ordinance shall be liable, in addition thereto, to a penalty of one-half of one per cent of the amount of the unpaid tax for each month or fraction of month for the first six months of non-payment, or Five Dollars ($5.00), whichever is the greater. The City Treasurer may waive or remit any such interest or penalties as he, in his discretion, deems proper.

SECTION 10. COLLECTION OF UNPAID TAXES.

All taxes imposed and administered by this Ordinance shall be collectible together with any interest and penalties thereon, by suit, as other debts of like amount are recoverable.

When a final return is filed as prescribed in Section 4 hereof and a deficiency is determined to be due to the City of East Liverpool, action to collect the same shall not be commenced after two (2) years from the due date of said return, and when a taxpayer fails to file a return, action to collect tax due to the City of East Liverpool shall not be commenced after five (5) years from the due date of said return.

All applications for refund shall be made within six (6) months of the due date of a final return or shall be forever barred thereafter. Provided, however, an extension may be granted by the City Treasurer on written application.

SECTION 11. VIOLATIONS, PENALTIES.

Any person, firm or corporation who shall fail, neglect or refuse to make any return, questionnaire or declaration required by this Ordinance, or any taxpayer who shall refuse to pay the tax, penalties and interest imposed by this Ordinance, or any person who shall refuse to permit the City Treasurer, or any duly authorized agent or employee, to examine his books, records and papers, or who shall knowingly make any incomplete, false or fraudulent return, or who shall attempt to do anything whatever to avoid the payment of the whole or any part of the tax, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or imprisoned for not more than sixty (60) days, or both. The failure of any employer or taxpayer to receive or procure a return, questionnaire or declaration form shall not excuse him from making a return, questionnaire or declaration or from paying the tax.

SECTION 12. ALLOCATION OF FUNDS.

The funds collected under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be disbursed as follows, to-wit:

1. Not more than forty (40) per cent of net available income tax receipts received annually shall be used to defray operating expenses of the City, including the income tax division of the Treasurer's Office.

2. The balance of net available income tax receipts received annually shall be set aside annually and be used for capital improvements for the City including, but not limited to, street improvements.

SECTION 13. This Ordinance shall not apply to any person, firm, corporation or to any property as to whom or which it is beyond the power of City Council of the City of East Liverpool to impose the tax herein provided for. If any sentence, clause, section or part of this Ordinance, or any tax against any individual or any of the several groups specified herein is found to be unconstitutional, illegal or invalid, such clause, sentence, section or part of this Ordinance shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions, sentences, clauses, sections or other parts of this Ordinance. It is hereby declared to be the intention of the Council of the City of East Liverpool that this Ordinance would have been adopted had such unconstitutional, illegal or invalid sentence, clause, section or part thereof not been included herein.

SECTION 14. EXEMPTIONS.

The provisions of this Ordinance shall not be construed as levying a tax upon the following:

1. Funds received from local, state or federal governments because of service in the Armed Forces of the United States by the person rendering such service, or as a result of another person rendering such service.

2. Poor relief, pensions, unemployment compensation or similar payments, including disability benefits received from private industry or local, state or federal governments, or from charitable, religious or educational organizations.

3. Alimony received.

4. Dues, contributions and similar payments received by charitable, religious, educational or literary organizations or labor unions, lodges and similar organizations.

5. Receipts from casual entertainment, amusements, sports events and health and welfare activities conducted by bona fide charitable, religious and educational organizations and associations.

6. Any association, organization, corporation, club or trust, which is exempt from federal tax or income by reason of its charitable, religious, educational, literary, scientific, etc. purposes.

7. Gains from involuntary conversions, cancellation of indebtedness, interest on federal obligations, items of income already taxed by the State of Ohio, and income of a decedent's estate during the period of administration (except such income from the operation of a business).

8. Earnings and income of all persons under 16 years of age, whether residents or non-residents.

9. Employment of duly enrolled full-time students by their school, college, university or any public library, and services performed by student nurses and hospital interns.

SECTION 15. REFUNDS.

Should it appear that any taxpayer has paid more than the amount of tax to which the City of East Liverpool is entitled under the provisions of this Ordinance, a refund of the amount so overpaid shall be made, provided a proper claim for refund of such overpayment of tax has been filed by the taxpayer.

SECTION 16. The Ordinance shall continue effective insofar as the levy of taxes is concerned until December 31, 1962, provided, however, that annual returns for the year ending December 31, 1962, shall be filed on or before April 15, 1963. Said Ordinance, insofar as the collection of taxes levied in the aforesaid period, and action or proceedings for collecting any tax so levied, or enforcing any provisions of said Ordinance are concerned, shall continue effective for such time as indicated in Section 10 hereof.

SECTION 17. This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

To provide funds for the purpose of general municipal operations, and other municipal purposes of the City of East Liverpool, there be and hereby is levied a tax upon the earnings at the rate of six-tenths of one per cent earned on and after the earliest effective date of this Ordinance to December 31, 1962, upon the following:

A. On all salaries, wages, commissions, and other compensation earned by resident individuals of the City of East Liverpool.

B. On all salaries, wages, commissions and other compensation earned by non-resident individuals of the City of East Liverpool, for work done or services performed or rendered in the City of East Liverpool.

C. On the net profits attributable to East Liverpool, of all resident unincorporated businesses, professions and other activities derived from work done or services rendered or performed and business or other activities conducted in the City of East Liverpool.

D. On the portion of the distributive share of the net profit of a resident, individual, partner or owner of a resident unincorporated business entity attributable to East Liverpool and not levied against such unincorporated business entity.

E. On the net profits attributable to East Liverpool of all non-resident unincorporated businesses, professions or other activities, derived from work done or services performed or rendered and business or other activities conducted in the City of East Liverpool.

F. On that portion of the distributive share of the net profits of a resident individual, partner or owner of a non-resident unincorporated business entity not attributable to East Liverpool and not levied against such unincorporated business entity.

G. On the net profits of all corporations derived from work done or services performed or rendered and business or other activities conducted in the City of East Liverpool.

The portion of the entire net profits of a taxpayer to be allocated as having been made within and attributable to the City of East Liverpool, may, in the absence of actual records or separate accounting thereof, be determined as follows:

A. Multiply the entire net profit by a business allocation percentage to be determined by:

1. Ascertaining the percentage which the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property within the City during the period covered by its report bears to the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property wherever situated during such period.

As used in the preceding paragraph, real property shall include property rented or leased by the taxpayer and the value of such property shall be determined by multiplying the annual rental thereon by eight.

2. Ascertaining the percentage which the gross sales of the taxpayer within the City of East Liverpool, plus the gross credits or charges for work done and performed or services rendered in the City of East Liverpool, bears to the total gross sales wherever made, plus the total gross credits or charges for work done and performed or services rendered. "Within the City" sales shall be deemed to include:

a. All sales of tangible personal property delivered to purchasers within the City if shipped or delivered from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or place of storage, located within the City.

b. All sales of tangible personal property delivered to purchasers within the City, even though transported from a point outside the City, if the following conditions are present:

If the taxpayer is regularly engaged through its own employees in the solicitation or promotion of sales within the City, and the sale is directly or indirectly the result of the taxpayer's activities within the City in soliciting or promoting sales.

c. All sales of tangible personal property shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory or place of storage within the City to purchasers in other cities or villages, if the taxpayer is not through its own employees, regularly engaged in the solicitation or promotion of sales in such other cities or villages, or even if it is so engaged, if the sales are not directly or indirectly attributable to such activities.

Gross sales shall be considered to mean gross receipts from sales in the case of a "cash basis" taxpayer.

3. Ascertaining the percentage which the total wages, salaries, and other personal service compensation, similarly computed during such period, of employees within the City, except general executive officers, bears to the total wages, salaries, and other personal service compensation, similarly computed, during such period of all the taxpayer's employees within and without the City, except general executive officers, and

4. Adding together the percentages determined in accordance with sub-paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 above, or such of the aforesaid percentages as shall be applicable to the particular taxpayer's business, and dividing the total so obtained by the number of percentages used in deriving said total.

Provided, however, that in the event a just and equitable result cannot be obtained by the use of the factors set forth above, the City Treasurer shall have the authority to substitute factors calculated to effect a fair and proper allocation.

SECTION 3. Said tax shall be levied, collected and paid with respect to salaries, wages, commissions and other compensation earned on or after the effective date of this Ordinance and with respect to the net profit of businesses, professions and other activities earned on and after said date. Provided, however, that where the fiscal year of the businesses, professions or other activities differs from the calendar year, the tax shall be applied to that part of the net profit for the fiscal year as shall be earned on and after said effective date of this Ordinance to the close of the taxpayer's fiscal year; thereafter the taxpayer shall report on its fiscal year basis.

SECTION 4. RETURN AND PAYMENT OF TAX.

A. Each taxpayer whose earnings or profits are subject to the tax imposed by this Ordinance shall, on or before April 15, 1960, and on April 15 of each year thereafter, make and file a final return with the City Treasurer on a form obtainable from the City Treasurer, setting forth the aggregate amount of salary, wages or other compensation and net profits earned by him during the preceding year and subject to said tax, together with other pertinent information as the City Treasurer may require. Provided, however, that when the final return is made for a fiscal year or other period different from the calendar year, the return shall be made within 105 days from the end of said fiscal year or other period.

B. The return shall also show the amount of the tax imposed on such earnings and profits. The taxpayer making the said return shall, at the time of the filing thereof, pay to the City Treasurer the amount of taxes shown as due thereon. Provided, however, that where any portion of said tax shall have been paid by such taxpayer pursuant to the provisions of Section 5 and/or Section 6 of this Ordinance, credit for the amount so paid shall be deducted from the amount shown to be due and only the balance, if any, shall be due and payable at the time of filing said final return.

C. The return of an employer or employers showing the amount of tax deducted by said employer or employers from the salaries, wages or compensation of any employees, and paid by him or them to the City Treasurer, shall be accepted as the return required of any employee whose sole income subject to the tax of six-tenths of one per cent, is such salary, wages or compensation.

D. Upon written request of the taxpayer, the City Treasurer may extend the time for filing the annual return for a period of not more than six months or not more than thirty days beyond any extension requested of and granted by the Bureau of Internal Revenue for the filing of the Federal Income Tax Return.

SECTION 5. COLLECTION AT SOURCE.

Each employer within the City of East Liverpool who employs within the City one or more persons on a salary, wage, commission or other compensation basis, excluding exempted incomes set forth in Section 14 of this Ordinance, shall deduct at the time of the payment of such salary, wage, commission or other compensation, the tax of six-tenths of one per cent, of salaries, wages, commissions or other compensation due by the said employer to the said employee and shall make a return and pay to the City Treasurer the amount of taxes so deducted as follows:

A. For the three (3) months ending March 31st, on or before April 30th;

B. For the three (3) months ending June 30th, on or before July 31st;

C. For the three (3) months ending September 30th on or before October 31st;

D. For the three (3) months ending December 31st, on or before the following January 31st.

Said return shall be on a form prescribed by the City Auditor and furnished by the City Treasurer. Such employer, in collecting said tax, shall be deemed to hold the same as trustee for the benefit of the City of East Liverpool until payment is made by such employer to the City of East Liverpool, and any such tax collected by such employer from his employees shall, until the same is paid to the City of East Liverpool, be deemed a trust fund in the hands of such employer.

SECTION 6. DECLARATIONS.

Every taxpayer who anticipates any income which is not subject to the provisions of Section 5 hereof shall file a declaration of the estimated tax for the taxable year of 1959. Such declaration shall be filed on or before July 15, 1959, and thereafter a similar declaration shall be filed for each calendar year on or before April 15 of each ensuing year for the duration of the taxes referred to herein, by all such taxpayers.

Such declaration shall be filed upon a form prescribed by the City Auditor and furnished by the City Treasurer, which form may simply state that the figures used in making such declaration are the figures used in making the declaration of the estimate for the Federal Income Tax, provided that it is understood that such figures may be modified according to the provisions of this Ordinance so that the declaration required by this section shall set forth only such income as is taxable under the provisions of this Ordinance.

The declaration to be filed on April 15 of each year shall be accompanied by payment of at least one-fourth of the estimated annual tax, and at least a similar amount shall be paid on or before June 30th, September 30th and December 31st of such year. Provided, however, that such estimate may be amended at the time of the making of any quarterly payment, and further provided that on or before April 15 of the year following that for which declaration was filed, a final return shall be filed and any balance which may be due the City of East Liverpool shall be paid therewith. Should it appear that such taxpayer has paid more than the amount of tax to which the City of East Liverpool would be entitled, a refund of the amount so over paid shall be made, or same may be applied toward the declaration of tax due for the ensuing year.

SECTION 6-A. RECIPROCITY PROVISION. CREDIT FOR TAX PAID TO OTHER MUNICIPALITIES.

1. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Ordinance, when a non-resident of East Liverpool is subject to the tax imposed by this Ordinance and is also subject to tax on the same income in the municipality of his residence, a credit of 50 per cent of the tax due under this Ordinance or 50 per cent of the tax due under the Ordinance of such other municipality, whichever is the lesser, shall be allowed against the tax due under this Ordinance, provided however, that such credit shall not be allowed unless such other municipality imposes on its residents a tax on the same income and reciprocal provision is made in the Ordinance of such other municipality granting to non-residents thereof a credit of not less than the percentage provided for herein against the tax levied thereby, and provided further that such reciprocal credit shall not be allowed unless such non-resident is liable and has acknowledged such liability in the municipality of his residence for any tax due after such reciprocal credit is allowed, and the municipality of his residence furnishes evidence of payment of tax therein or evidence of assignment by the taxpayer of his claim for reciprocal credit to such other municipality.

The credit allowed a non-resident under this paragraph may be assigned to the municipality of his residence and the amount of such credit paid to such other municipality in such manner as the City Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool may prescribe.

2. (a) When a resident of East Liverpool is subject to a municipal income tax in another municipality on the same income taxable under this Ordinance, a credit shall be allowed against East Liverpool income tax of the amount of net tax for which he is liable under the Ordinance of such other municipality, but such credit shall not exceed 50 per cent of the tax due hereunder.

(b) In the event an East Liverpool resident is entitled to a reciprocity credit under the Ordinance of another municipality, or is entitled to credit for taxes paid another municipality, such East Liverpool resident is required to file a return or form in such manner as the City Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool may prescribe.

Assignment of any claim for refund to which an East Liverpool resident may be entitled from another municipality shall be tentatively accepted as payment of that portion of East Liverpool income tax represented by such assignment. Provided, however, if satisfactory evidence is offered that the taxpayer is entitled to the claim covered by the assignment, such taxpayer shall not be deprived of credit therefor because of fault or neglect on the part of either municipality.

In the event such East Liverpool resident fails, neglects or refuses to file such return or form as is prescribed by the City Treasurer, he shall not be entitled to such credit and shall be considered in violation of this Ordinance for failure to file a return and make payment of taxes due hereunder.

3. Any claims for credit for income taxes paid another municipality on the same income taxable hereunder, or claim for or assignment of any refund due to the credit provided for herein, must be filed with the City Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool on or before December 31st of the year following that for which such credit is claimed, provided that, in the case such claim for reciprocity refund shall have been assigned to the municipality or residence, such municipality of residence shall file a claim for refund with the City Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool on or before January 31st following. Failure to file such claim for reciprocity credit or refund, or assignment thereof, within the time prescribed herein shall render such credit, claim for refund, or assignment null and void.

SECTION 7. ADMINISTRATION. DUTIES OF CITY AUDITOR AND CITY TREASURER.

The taxes imposed and levied pursuant to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be administered by such deputies and clerks within the City Treasurer's Department as may be from time to time determined by the Council of the City of East Liverpool.

The City Auditor shall prescribe the form of accounts and reports to be rendered to his office, the form and method of keeping account within the income tax office. The City Auditor shall be charged with the interval audit of all accounts and returns, including the correction of the returns.

The City Treasurer shall demand, collect and receive the tax imposed by this Ordinance. The City Treasurer shall keep an accurate record showing the amount received from each taxpayer and the date of said receipt. The City Treasurer shall make a written report to Council each quarter of all monies collected hereunder during the preceding quarter.

SECTION 8. The City Treasurer, or any authorized employee, is hereby authorized to examine the books, papers and records of any employer, or of any taxpayer or person subject to the tax, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any return made, or, if no return was made, to ascertain the tax due. Every such employer, supposed employer, taxpayer or supposed taxpayer, is hereby directed and required to furnish to the City Treasurer, or his duly authorized agent or employee, the means, facilities and opportunity for making such examination and investigations as are hereby authorized.

The City Treasurer, or his duly authorized agent or employee, is hereby authorized to examine any person, employer or employee under oath, concerning any income which was or should have been returned for taxation, and for this purpose may compel the production of books, papers and records and the attendance of all persons before him, whether as parties or witnesses, whenever he believes such persons have knowledge of such income.

The refusal of such examination by any employer, employee or person subject or presumed to be subject to the tax shall be deemed a violation of this Ordinance.

Tax returns and all audit papers and information connected therewith are confidential and shall be carefully preserved so that they shall not be available for inspection by anyone other than the proper agents of the City of East Liverpool for official purposes.

Any information gained as the result of any returns, investigations, hearings or verifications required or authorized by this Ordinance shall be confidential, except for official purposes, and except in accordance with proper judicial order. Any person divulging such information shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine or penalty of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or imprisoned for not more than six (6) months in the city jail, or both such fine and imprisonment for such offense. In addition to the above penalties, any employee of the City of East Liverpool who violates the provisions of this section relative to disclosures of confidential information shall be immediately dismissed from the service of the City.

SECTION 9. INTEREST AND PENALTIES.

All taxes imposed by this Ordinance, including taxes withheld from wages by an employer and remaining unpaid after they have become due, shall bear interest on the amount of the unpaid tax at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum, and the taxpayers upon whom said taxes are imposed, and the employers required by this Ordinance to deduct, withhold and pay taxes imposed by the Ordinance shall be liable, in addition thereto, to a penalty of one-half of one per cent of the amount of the unpaid tax for each month or fraction of month for the first six months of non-payment, or Five Dollars ($5.00), whichever is the greater. The City Treasurer may waive or remit any such interest or penalties as he, in his discretion, deems proper.

SECTION 10. COLLECTION OF UNPAID TAXES.

All taxes imposed and administered by this Ordinance shall be collectible together with any interest and penalties thereon, by suit, as other debts of like amount are recoverable.

When a final return is filed as prescribed in Section 4 hereof and a deficiency is determined to be due to the City of East Liverpool, action to collect the same shall not be commenced after two (2) years from the due date of said return, and when a taxpayer fails to file a return, action to collect tax due to the City of East Liverpool shall not be commenced after five (5) years from the due date of said return.

All applications for refund shall be made within six (6) months of the due date of a final return or shall be forever barred thereafter. Provided, however, an extension may be granted by the City Treasurer on written application.

SECTION 11. VIOLATIONS, PENALTIES.

Any person, firm or corporation who shall fail, neglect or refuse to make any return, questionnaire or declaration required by this Ordinance, or any taxpayer who shall refuse to pay the tax, penalties and interest imposed by this Ordinance, or any person who shall refuse to permit the City Treasurer, or any duly authorized agent or employee, to examine his books, records and papers, or who shall knowingly make any incomplete, false or fraudulent return, or who shall attempt to do anything whatever to avoid the payment of the whole or any part of the tax, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or imprisoned for not more than sixty (60) days, or both. The failure of any employer or taxpayer to receive or procure a return, questionnaire or declaration form shall not excuse him from making a return, questionnaire or declaration or from paying the tax.

SECTION 12. ALLOCATION OF FUNDS.

The funds collected under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be disbursed as follows, to-wit:

1. Not more than forty (40) per cent of net available income tax receipts received annually shall be used to defray operating expenses of the City, including the income tax division of the Treasurer's Office.

2. The balance of net available income tax receipts received annually shall be set aside annually and be used for capital improvements for the City including, but not limited to, street improvements.

SECTION 13. This Ordinance shall not apply to any person, firm, corporation or to any property as to whom or which it is beyond the power of City Council of the City of East Liverpool to impose the tax herein provided for. If any sentence, clause, section or part of this Ordinance, or any tax against any individual or any of the several groups specified herein is found to be unconstitutional, illegal or invalid, such clause, sentence, section or part of this Ordinance shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions, sentences, clauses, sections or other parts of this Ordinance. It is hereby declared to be the intention of the Council of the City of East Liverpool that this Ordinance would have been adopted had such unconstitutional, illegal or invalid sentence, clause, section or part thereof not been included herein.

SECTION 14. EXEMPTIONS.

The provisions of this Ordinance shall not be construed as levying a tax upon the following:

1. Funds received from local, state or federal governments because of service in the Armed Forces of the United States by the person rendering such service, or as a result of another person rendering such service.

2. Poor relief, pensions, unemployment compensation or similar payments, including disability benefits received from private industry or local, state or federal governments, or from charitable, religious or educational organizations.

3. Alimony received.

4. Dues, contributions and similar payments received by charitable, religious, educational or literary organizations or labor unions, lodges and similar organizations.

5. Receipts from casual entertainment, amusements, sports events and health and welfare activities conducted by bona fide charitable, religious and educational organizations and associations.

6. Any association, organization, corporation, club or trust, which is exempt from federal tax or income by reason of its charitable, religious, educational, literary, scientific, etc. purposes.

7. Gains from involuntary conversions, cancellation of indebtedness, interest on federal obligations, items of income already taxed by the State of Ohio, and income of a decedent's estate during the period of administration (except such income from the operation of a business).

8. Earnings and income of all persons under 16 years of age, whether residents or non-residents.

9. Employment of duly enrolled full-time students by their school, college, university or any public library, and services performed by student nurses and hospital interns.

SECTION 15. REFUNDS.

Should it appear that any taxpayer has paid more than the amount of tax to which the City of East Liverpool is entitled under the provisions of this Ordinance, a refund of the amount so overpaid shall be made, provided a proper claim for refund of such overpayment of tax has been filed by the taxpayer.

SECTION 16. The Ordinance shall continue effective insofar as the levy of taxes is concerned until December 31, 1962, provided, however, that annual returns for the year ending December 31, 1962, shall be filed on or before April 15, 1963. Said Ordinance, insofar as the collection of taxes levied in the aforesaid period, and action or proceedings for collecting any tax so levied, or enforcing any provisions of said Ordinance are concerned, shall continue effective for such time as indicated in Section 10 hereof.

SECTION 17. This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

Hancock May Refund Taxes

Under a ruling made public Friday by the West Virginia State Tax Department, persons who paid a property transfer tax in 1957-58 in Hancock County are entitled to refunds, without interest.

In 1957 State Legislature empowered county boards to impose a tax of up to $2.20 for each $500 of price involved on recordation of deeds or similar instruments to enable counties to raise more local money for schools.

But last June, the property transfer tax was invalidated by the Supreme Court which held that the act was an unconstitutional delegation of taxing power.

Nine other counties are affected by the ruling made public yesterday at Charleston by Atty. Benjamin A. Ritchie of the tax division.

In Ritchie's 29 - page statement, he said persons desiring refunds should present claims to the board in the county in which they paid the tax.

His opinion also said a taxpayer could maintain a court action to adjudicate a claim disallowed by a school board or to compel a board to act on a claim.

Under the ruling, the Hancock County Board of Education may have to refund $32,061.38 in property transfer tax funds it realized in 1957-58.

However, County Supt. Robert H. Hall said today that he has received no official word on the tax refund opinion. An official ruling on refunds may have to be made by the state's attorney general, he said.

Man Pleads Guilty To Lesser Charge In Theft Of Coins

Originally facing a charge that could have led to a penitentiary sentence for looting the coin box of a soft drink vending machine outside a service station, a 24-year-old East Liverpool man was permitted to plead guilty Friday in Municipal Court to a lesser charge of petty larceny.

Edward J. Emler, 1956 Dresden Ave., was fined $25 and costs on the reduced charge by Judge George L. Brokaw. It fixed the amount stolen at approximately $5.

Emler originally was arraigned April 8 on a charge of breaking into "a depository box" of a vending machine last July 29 at the Chan Gulf Service Station on Pennsylvania Ave. Conviction of violation of that section would have left him open to a prison term of 1-20 years.

Patrolman Thomas A. Walker of the Special Service Bureau, who filed the original charge against Emler, also signed the allegation that was substituted yesterday. Emler was represented by Atty. W. S. Foulks.

Police arrested Emler after an alleged accomplice, now in county jail at Lisbon on burglary charges, said he and Emler looted vending machines at three East End service stations.

Hancock May Refund Taxes

Under a ruling made public Friday by the West Virginia State Tax Department, persons who paid a property transfer tax in 1957-58 in Hancock County are entitled to refunds, without interest.

In 1957 State Legislature empowered county boards to impose a tax of up to $2.20 for each $500 of price involved on recordation of deeds or similar instruments to enable counties to raise more local money for schools.

But last June, the property transfer tax was invalidated by the Supreme Court which held that the act was an unconstitutional delegation of taxing power.

Nine other counties are affected by the ruling made public yesterday at Charleston by Atty. Benjamin A. Ritchie of the tax division.

In Ritchie's 29 - page statement, he said persons desiring refunds should present claims to the board in the county in which they paid the tax.

His opinion also said a taxpayer could maintain a court action to adjudicate a claim disallowed by a school board or to compel a board to act on a claim.

Under the ruling, the Hancock County Board of Education may have to refund $32,061.38 in property transfer tax funds it realized in 1957-58.

However, County Supt. Robert H. Hall said today that he has received no official word on the tax refund opinion. An official ruling on refunds may have to be made by the state's attorney general, he said.
